The Navya-nyaya Doctrine of Negation Bimal Krishna Matilal,1968 The Navya-nyāya Doctrine of Negation

Bimal Krishna Matilal,1968 The Navya nyaya New Method school of logic has exerted a profound influence on Indian philosophy since the twelfth century In this system with its hierarchy of abstractions rather than of classes the doctrine of negation is crucial Bimal Krishna Matilal expounds Navya nyaya theory by systematically translating its arguments into the language of Western logic He also provides texts and literal translations of two standard works on negation one each from the orthodox and the radical wings of the school and a detailed commentary of his own upon them Phenomenology and Existentialism in the Twentieth Century Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2009-10-13 Our world's cultural circles are permeated by the philosophical influences of existentialism and phenomenology Two contemporary quests to elucidate rationality took their inspirations from Kierkegaard's existentialism plumbing the subterranean source of subjective experience and Husserl's phenomenology focusing on the constitutive aspect of rationality Yet both contrary directions mingled readily in common vindication of full reality In the inquisitive minds Scheler Heidegger Sartre Stein Merleau Ponty et al a fruitful cross pollination of insights ideas approaches fused in one powerful wave disseminating throughout all domains of thought Existentialist rejection of ratiocination and speculation together with Husserl's shift to the genesis of rapproches philosophy and literature Wahl Marcel Berdyaev Wojtyla Tischner etc while the foundational underpinnings of language Wittgenstein Derrida etc opened the hidden behind the veils Sezgin and Dominguez Rey The Navya-nyaya doctrine of negation Bimal Krishna Matilal,1968 The Navya-nyāya Doctrines of Negation Bimal Krishna Matilal, Gañgeśa,1968 Negative Hermeneutics and the Question of Practice Nicholas Davey,2023-12-28 How do words and images function hermeneutically How does hermeneutic practice work Answering these questions and more Nicholas Davey develops the hermeneutical foundations of creative practice In doing so he not only uncovers the significance of philosophical hermeneutics for the arts and the humanities but defends the humanities as a whole from the current scepticism inspired by deconstruction and post structuralism Taking Gadamer's language ontology as its cue this pioneering volume not only addresses certain weaknesses that Davey observes in Gadamer's thought but further takes Gadamerian thinking beyond Gadamer himself In particular Davey investigates the productive value of negativity that is central to hermeneutics and to wider spheres of creative learning Advocating a renewed confidence in hermeneutics and the humanities Negative Hermeneutics and the Question of Practice reveals how hermeneutical thinking provides a map of the dynamics within creative practice eliminating the need for an externally imposed theory of the arts Merleau-Ponty and Nishida Adam Loughnane,2019-12-19 Places the phenomenologies of Merleau Ponty and Nishida in dialogue and uncovers a demand for a motor perceptual form of faith in both philosophers meditations on artistic expression In Merleau Ponty and Nishida Adam

Loughnane initiates a fascinating new dialogue between two of the twentieth century's most important phenomenologists of the Eastern and Western philosophical worlds. Throughout the book the reader is guided among the intricacies and innovations of Merleau-Ponty's and Nishida's ontological approaches to artistic expression with a focused look at a rarely explored connection between faith and negation in their philosophies. Exploring the intertwining of these concepts in their broader ontologies invokes a reappraisal of the ambiguous status of religion and art in the writings of both thinkers. Measuring these ambiguities the ontologies of Flesh and Basho are read in depth alongside great artworks and the motor-perceptual practices of seminal landscape artists such as C. Zanne Sessh Taiga and Hasegawa as well as other major figures of European, Chinese and Japanese art history. Loughnane studies these artists' bodily practices focusing on the intimate relations realized with the landscapes they paint and illuminating a valence of their expressive disciplines as a motor-perceptual form of faith. Merleau-Ponty and Nishida is an exciting intercultural reading expanding two philosophers' projects toward new horizons of research revealing incitements in their writings that challenge unambiguous distinctions between art, philosophy, faith and ultimately philosophy. East and West. Loughnane illuminates the ambiguous chiasmic and dynamic relationality between the body and the world providing concrete examples from art history East and West. He not only skillfully explains Nishida's and Merleau-Ponty's ontological notions but also puts their philosophy to the test of art works proving that their thinking reveals an important truth of art. Working Papers on Language Universals, 1975 Being, Negation and Logic Eric Toms, 1962 Negation and Non-being Richard M. Gale, 1976 The Suffering Animal Simone Ghelli, 2023-06-08

This book provides a critical and innovative reassessment of contemporary debate on the human-animal relationship. Starting with a critique of the official philosophical narration of animal studies and then a reassessment of Descartes' animal-machine paradigm, Simone Ghelli tracks down the conceptual coordinates of what he calls the paradigm of the suffering animal. The suffering animal is a materialist thesis on the condition of the living which, while contesting the metaphysical and anthropocentric structure of Western axiology, eventually redefines and re-establishes ethics on the experience of suffering that is on the mutual compassion sentient beings feel before the unjust sight of their finitude. The suffering animal paradigm shows how, within our philosophical tradition, the animal question has been always intertwined with the questions of atheism and of materialism. The ultimate aim of this research is to define the ethical equilibrium between aspects of the living such as weakness and power, joy and suffering, life and death, which our philosophical tradition largely tends to consider as mutually excluding. To overcome such oppositions means avoiding opposing in our ethical and political discourse the defense of the vulnerability of the weak and the freedom of the powerful.
