International Handbook of Teachers and Teaching Bruce J. Biddle, T.L. Good, I. Goodson, 1998-04-30 Recent years have generated a huge increase in the number of research and scholarly works concerned with teachers and teaching, and this effort has generated new and important insights that are crucial for understanding education today. This handbook provides a host of chapters written by leading authorities that review both the major traditions of work and the newest perspectives, concepts, insights, and research-based knowledge concerned with teachers and teaching. Many of the chapters discuss developments that are international in scope, but coverage is also provided for education in a number of specific countries. Many chapters also review contemporary problems faced by educators and the dangers posed by recent politically inspired attempts to reform schools and school systems. The Handbook provides an invaluable resource for scholars, teacher educators, graduate students, and all thoughtful persons concerned with the best thinking about teachers and teaching, current problems, and the future of education.

Handbook for Teaching Secondary School Social Studies James W. Stockard, 2007 Handbook for Teaching Secondary School Social Studies is a guide, a tool, and a reference for pre-service and in-service teachers, clarifying the most effective ways to teach social studies in secondary school classrooms. Its intention is to help teachers become creative practitioners who can motivate students, create stimulating learning environments, and bring the core disciplines of social studies to life. Its goal in effect is to help teachers make social scientists of their students. The information contained in this book will enable teachers to become the catalyst for students' transformation into cognizant, confident citizens capable of making a difference in our world. The handbook is brief and manageable yet it provides pre-service and in-service teachers with comprehensive and in-depth coverage of research-based pedagogy, planning skills, standards-based instructional delivery approaches, and grade-level expectations for the core disciplines of the social studies.
