William Edward David Allen

Open Frontiers:

Savage Systems David Chidester, 1996 Savage Systems examines the emergence of the concepts of religion and religions on colonial frontiers. The book offers a detailed analysis of the ways in which European travelers, missionaries, settlers, and government agents, as well as indigenous Africans, engaged in the comparison of alternative religious ways of life as one dimension of intercultural contact. Focusing primarily on nineteenth-century frontier relations, David Chidester demonstrates that the terms and conditions for comparison, including a discourse about otherness that were established during this period, still remains. A volume in the series Studies in Religion and Culture.

Political Frontiers and Boundary Making Sir Thomas Hungerford Holdich, 1916 Warriors, Martyrs, and Dervishes Buket Kitapçı Bayrı, 2019-11-11 Warriors, Martyrs and Dervishes: Moving Frontiers, Shifting Identities in the Land of Rome, 13th-15th Centuries focuses on the perceptions of geopolitical and cultural change which was triggered by the arrival of Turkish Muslim groups into the territories of the Byzantine Empire at the end of the eleventh century through intersecting stories transmitted in Turkish Muslim warrior epics and dervish vilas and late Byzantine martyrdoms. It examines the Byzantines' encounters with the newcomers in a shared story world here called land of Rome, as well as its perception changing geopolitical and cultural frontiers and in relation to these changes, the shifts in identity of the people inhabiting this space. The study highlights the complex relationship between the character of specific places and the cultural identities of the people who inhabited them. See inside the book T.P.'s Weekly, 1928.

War and Change in World Politics Robert Gilpin, 1981 Professor Gilpin uses history, sociology, and economic theory to identify the forces causing change in the world order. Lectures on Foreign History, 1494-1789 James Matthew Thompson, 1925.

She discusses a variety of works of interest to scholars in American cultural studies focusing on issues of culture, ethnicity, stereotypes within Western frontier writing. This is a work of narrow scholarship, but it does present a surprising cast of characters.
