Counseling the Communicatively Disabled and Their Families George H. Shames, 2006-08-15 Counseling the Communicatively Disabled and Their Families A Manual for Clinicians Second Edition written by George H Shames emphasizes the development of specific interviewing and counseling skills for speech language pathologists and audiologists which is a requirement of ASHA s clinical certification standards The book offers a clear basic definition of counseling then builds a picture of the multidimensional role of counseling in speech language pathology and audiology using anecdotal references to clinical cases Among the changes in the Second Edition Dr Shames a licensed speech language pathologist as well as a licensed clinical psychologist has expanded the theoretical overviews that ground the learning by doing skill development feature of this updated edition Practicing clinicians and students in communication disorders programs in addition to social workers and clinical psychologists will find this book invaluable to their training as focused helpful evaluators and counselors of the communicatively disabled It will also apply to training in other contexts and circumstances wherein counseling is appropriate

Kritika: Essays on Intellectual Property Peter Drahos, Gustavo Ghidini, Hanns Ullrich, 2015-09-25 The field of intellectual property has broadened and deepened in so many ways and at such pace that there is a tendency for academic commentators to focus on the next new thing or to react immediately to judicial developments rather than to reflect more deeply on the greater themes of the discipline The Kritika Essays on Intellectual

Property series is a series of books that are designed to fulfill this role by creating a forum for essays that take a critical long term approach to the field of intellectual property Breaking down the barriers of specialization and laying the foundation for an emergent critical scholarship this first book in the series brings together the leading scholars in the field to reflect deeply on the current state and future of their discipline
