The Orient in Music - Music of the Orient Małgorzata Grajter, 2018-04-18 OM a fundamental meditation sound present in the cultures of Buddhism is a syllable full of philosophical and transcendental meanings The category of the Orient as contrasted antithetical and complementary to the Occident West and its culture appears to be one of the most interesting and long lasting issues discussed in the humanities European fascination with Oriental cultures has found multifaceted manifestations in science art fashion and beliefs Music as an important element of cultural communication has always been well suited for transitions and inspirations The relationship between the Orient and Western music encompasses a wide and fascinating scope of problems a field of various multidimensional influences which brings an opportunity not only to study particular questions but also to search for universal and fundamental values This collection of essays is a result of an International Conference titled OM Orient in Music Music of the Orient held at the Grażyna and Kiejstut Academy of Music in Poland in March 2016 The volume provides insight into the many ways in which the music of the East and West can be understood and treated by both Western and Eastern scholars

The Orient Within Mary C. Neuburger, 2011-02 Bulgaria is a Slavic nation Orthodox in faith but with a sizable Muslim minority That minority is divided into various ethnic groups including the most numerically significant Turks and the so called Pomaks Bulgarian speaking men and women who have converted to Islam Mary Neuburger explores how Muslim minorities were integral to Bulgaria's struggle to extricate itself from its Ottoman past and develop a national identity a process complicated by its geographic and historical positioning between evolving and imagined parameters of East and West The Orient Within examines the Slavic majority's efforts to conceptualize and manage Turkish and Pomak identities and bodies through gendered dress practices renaming of people and places and land reclamation projects Neuburger shows that the relationship between Muslims and the Bulgarian majority has run the gamut from accommodation to forced removal to total assimilation from 1878 when Bulgaria acquired autonomy from the Ottoman Empire to 1989 when Bulgaria's Communist dictatorship collapsed Neuburger subjects the concept of Orientalism to an important critique showing its relevance and complexity in the Bulgarian context where national identity and modernity were brokered in the shadow of Western Europe Russia USSR and Turkey

National Identity and Great-Power Status in Russia and Japan Tadashi Anno, 2018-09-03 Having suffered military defeat at the hands of advanced Western powers in the 1850s Russia and Japan embarked upon a program of catch up and modernization in the late 19th Century While the two states sought in the main to replicate the successes of the advanced great powers of the West the discourse on national identity among Russian and Japanese elite in this period evinced a considerable degree of ambivalence about Western dominance With the onset of the crisis of power and legitimacy in the international order ushered in by the First World War this ambivalence shifted towards more open revolt against Western dominance The rise of communism in Russia and militarism in Japan were significantly shaped by their search for national distinctiveness and international status This book is a comparative historical study of how the two non Western great powers emerged as challengers to the prevailing international order in the interwar period each seeking to establish an alternative order Specifically Anno examines the parallels and contrasts in the ways in which the Russian and Japanese elites sought to define the two countries national identities and how those definitions influenced the two countries attitudes toward the prevailing order At the intersection of international relations theory comparative politics and of historical sociology this book offers an integrated perspective on the rise of challengers to the liberal international order in the early twentieth century

The Stelliferous Fold Rodolphe Gasché, 2011 This book seeks to develop a novel approach to literature beyond the conventional divide between realism formalism and history aestheticism It accomplishes this not only through a radical reassessment of the specificity of literature in distinction from one of its others namely philosophy but above all by taking critical issue with the venerable concept of the text and its association with the artisanal techniques of weaving and interlacing This conception of the text as an artisanal fabric is the author holds the unreflected presupposition of both realist or historicist and reflective or deconstructive criticism Gasché argues that the scenes of production within literary works created by their authors yet independent of those authors intentions stage a work s own production in virtual fashion and thus accomplish for those works a certain ideal ontological status that allows for both historical endurance and creative interpretation In Gasché s construction of these scenes in which literary works render visible within their own fabric the invisible conditions of their autonomous existence certain images prevail the fold the star the veil By showing that these literary images are not simply the opposites of concepts he not only puts into question the common opposition between literature and philosophy but shows that literary works perform a way of argumentation that in spite of all its difference from philosophical conceptuality is on a par with it The argument progresses through close readings of literary works by Lautréamont Nerval de l Isle Adam Huysman Flaubert Artaud Blanchot Defoe and Melville
