The Oriental Carpet P. R. J. Ford, 1989

The Persian Carpet Tradition P. R. J. Ford, 2019-06-30

Between 1400 and 1500 a design revolution in Persia swept away a 2000 year old tradition of carpet design replacing abstract geometric patterns with complex floral scrolls dominated by a central medallion derived from the Chinese cloud collar shape. This revolution represents a major event in world art history comparable to that which occurred at the same time in Renaissance Italy. It was followed over the next four centuries by a second revolution during which the principal design elements of the first permeated carpet production at every level throughout Persia and continue to dominate it to this day. AUTHOR Jim Ford worked for many years for the world famous international oriental carpet import export company OCM. In his career he followed in the illustrious footsteps of A. Cecil Edwards author of The Persian Carpet Duckworth 1953 as the company's rug buying agent in Iran before setting up his own business after the Iranian Revolution with his wife Barbara Lindsay Ford designing and producing their own contemporary carpets in Nepal. He is the author of one of the best selling oriental rug books of all time Oriental Carpet Design A Guide to Traditional Motifs Patterns and Symbols which has been subsequently reprinted on both sides of the Atlantic and translated into German and other languages. SELLING POINT Miniature paintings unlock the door to a thorough re-examination of the ubiquitous classical medallion design in Persian carpets revealing an artistic revolution comparable to that which occurred at the same time in Renaissance Italy. 380 colour and 20 b/w photographs.

Oriental Carpet Designs Jane Dyrdal, 1970-01-01 This book is a collection of carpet and rug designs from Danella Hooked Rugs. While the first edition featured fourteen designs this book has sixty three including Oriental inspired rugs. Since carpet is placed on a floor it should be designed so that it can be seen from any side. Oriental carpets inspired most of Danella's designs. These carpets have more detailed features than are possible with Danella rug hooking so it was not possible to just copy Oriental designs. Redesigning was needed and artist Jane Dyrdal created the original Oriental rug hooking designs for Danella customers.
