(Re)Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Cristina Pividori, David Owen, 2024-07-09. Re Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture: Beyond Post Memory is an exploration of war narratives through the lens of postmemory, offering a critical re-evaluation of how contemporary literature and cultural products reshape our understanding of past conflicts. This volume presents a rich tapestry of perspectives drawing from an array of conflicts and incorporating insights from international experts across various disciplines including contemporary literature, film studies, visual arts, and cultural studies. It critically builds upon and extends Marianne Hirsch's concept of postmemory, engaging with complex themes like the ethical dimensions of war, writing, the authenticity of representations, and the creative power of art in reimagining traumatic events. This study not only challenges traditional boundaries in war literature and memory studies but also resonates with contemporary concerns about societal engagement with violent pasts, making it a significant addition to scholarly discourse and essential reading for those interested in the intersection of history, memory, and literature.      Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21. *Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day, this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction.
