Orthodox Saints Volume 2:

Selected Orthodox Saints Angelo Nicolaides, 2006      1 John, Revised and Extended L. Daniel Cantey, 2021-07-28 In 1 John On Docetism and Resurrection 2016 the author elucidated the fundamental principles driving the modern order The latter works according to a novel form of salvation an ontology unto dissolution that the author recognizes as a new manifestation of the ancient heresy of docetism The modern heresy turns on faith in the Christ Idol an idolatry hidden for centuries beneath the cover of Western Christianity Its theological solution requires renewed engagement with the Trinitarian love understanding that love as a function of mutual life giving between the divine persons The revised and extended version of 1 John assumes the undoing of Western society under the docetic ethos seeking theological foundations for the society that might follow It details the meaning of various aspects of docetic modern society through a Johannine lens explaining these aspects as forms of oppression The author counters these through the Eastern Orthodox focus on the inner life over the external one the spiritual world over the physical and the proper appreciation of hierarchy as opposed to docetic equality      The Oxford Handbook of Deification Paul L. Gavrilyuk, Andrew P. Hofer, Matthew Levering, 2024-07-19 Modern theological engagements on deification have undergone two major paradigm shifts First the study of deification shifted from the periphery of theological discourse to its center For Adolf von Harnack deification was a pagan import that fatally corrupted and distorted the Gospel message of salvation In response the positive retrieval of the concept of deification belongs to the early years of the twentieth century By the 1910s in Russian religious thought and by the 1930s in much Roman Catholic theology deification had become a magnet concept attracting attention from many different viewpoints The second important shift relates to how deification is characterized Recent studies question the exclusively Eastern character of deification and draw attention to the engagements of this theme in Latin patristic and later Western Christian sources Reassessing the evidence for these two major shifts The Oxford Handbook of Deification comprehensively explores the points of convergence and difference on the constitutive elements of deification in different traditions and offers a foundation for ecumenical and interreligious dialogues The Handbook's first part analyzes the cultural and scriptural roots of deification the second part explores the most significant historical contributions to the understanding of deification in the early medieval and modern periods the third part develops systematic connections Readers will discover a surprising breadth depth and diversity of theologies of deification in Christian traditions Throughout the Handbook leading scholars in the field of Deification Studies propose vital new insights from a variety of perspectives for this central mystery at the heart of the Christian faith      Paperbound Books in Print, 1992      Recovering the Icon Patrick Doolan, 2008 Leonid Ouspensky 1902 1987 settled in France following the Russian Revolution and worked as a talented but struggling commercial painter prior to discovering the icon which became his life's work Orthodox iconography had been in full decline since the seventeenth century and Ouspensky set out to recover the genuine sources of Eastern Christian art and to recover the Tradition that had spawned them In this work Schemamonk Patrick Doolan a pupil of Ouspensky has chosen and commented on more than 100 of Ouspensky s representative works Icons and sculptures and wood and stone as well as pressed metal are included giving us a broad range of the talent of this masterful teacher BOOK JACKET      First in the Desert: St. Paul the Hermit in Text and Tradition ,2024-12-09 This volume invites the reader to a journey into the mystery that is St Paul the First Hermit Presented in nine language traditions that span ten centuries of transmission Paul s vitae are a case study in cultural fusion and diversity Assembled here for the first time they provide the scaffolding for the volume that offers a window into the world of Eastern Christianity that consists of deeply interconnected diverse communities We learn about churches and monasteries and libraries about books and relics about art and iconography and about the place of St Paul in various liturgical traditions
