Orthodoxy In Conversation Orthodox Ecumenical Engagements:

Orthodoxy in Conversation Emmanuel Clapsis, 2000 Here is a coherent creative set of essays by a well established Orthodox theologian who dares to address many of the critical and controversial issues of the day The author is an Orthodox ecumenist who has taken seriously the ecumenical commitment of his church and attempts to do theology in conversation with other Christian traditions and theologies in the context of the ongoing theological deliberations of the World Council of Churches and more specifically of the Faith and Order commission He deals with a wide range of issues including the Orthodox church and the ecumenical movement naming God papal primacy politics and the Christian faith population consumption and the environment violence what the Spirit says to the churches the challenge of contextual theologies and the eucharist as missionary event

Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N.

Leustean, 2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East America Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century

The Gospel Among the Nations: A Documentary History of Inculturation Hunt, Robert A, 2014-04-10

The Gospel Among the Nations brings together in a single volume the most important primary documents illustrating how Christians have dealt with the most fundamental issue of the churchs mission how to translate the gospel in new cultural settings The texts range from Pope Gregorys famous instructions to Augustine of Canterbury on his mission to England to W E Hockings fateful Attitudes toward People of Other Faiths Beginning with a masterful introduction to the theme Robert Hunt assembles scores of texts that reveal the way that missionaries church leaders and local Christians have contributed to the extension of Christianity over two millennia and thus made it truly a world religion The Gospel Among the Nations is an essential resource for students researchers and practitioners in world Christian history and mission studies

God's Rule Suzanne Neusner, 2003-05-06

Resisting the tendency to separate the study of religion and politics editor Jacob Neusner pulls together a collection of ten essays in which various authors explain and explore the relationship between the world s major religions and political power As William Scott Green writes in the introduction Because religion is so comprehensive it is fundamentally about power it therefore cannot avoid politics Beginning with the classical sources and texts of Judaism Christianity Buddhism Islam Confucianism and Hinduism God s Rule begins to explore the complex nature of how each religion shapes political power and how religion shapes itself in relation to that power The corresponding attention to differing theories of politics and views towards non believers are important not only to studies in comparative religion but to foreign policy history and governance as well From early Christianity's relationship to the Roman Empire to Hinduism's relationship to Gandhi and the caste system God's Rule provides a basis of understanding from which undergraduates seminarians and others can begin asking questions of relationships both unavoidable and systematically uneasy Religion and Violence Ednan Aslan, Marcia Hermansen, 2017-05-09 In this volume the authors attempt to speak freely about the potential in religions both for violence and peace I am confident that many impulses from this work will also impact the direction of churches and other religious communities such that religions all together will try to mobilize the members of their communities to actively contribute to world peace In this way religions will be perceived as part of the solution for world peace enabling them to move beyond the stigma of their damaged reputations
