ERS Bulletin Educational Research Service (Arlington, Va.),1988      Resources in Education ,1990      Report on Education Research ,1989 The independent bi weekly newsletter on research in education and learning      Organizing Schools for Productive Learning Shlomo Sharan,Ivy Geok Chin Tan,2008-06-27 A major problem confronting schools is that many students are turned off from learning and are bored Boredom is destructive of learning The No Child Left Behind NCLB initiative of the US government 2001 stemmed from the claim accompanied by sharp debates pro and con that many schools in the United States fail to achieve basic educational objectives and that many schools are doing a poor job for a wide variety of reasons and surely not just because of student boredom Brigham Gustashaw Wiley Essex 2006 Goodman Shannon Goodman Sunderman Tracey Jr Kim Orfield 2004 The model of school organization and instruction presented here seeks to provide an effective plan for significant improvement in secondary school education one of whose central aims is to make students genuinely engaged in what they are learning The NCLB legislation emphasizes inter alia the need for school improvement Without it one cannot reasonably anticipate improvement over current levels in student engagement in learning and in academic achievement The NCLB literature frequently employs the term school improvement to refer to the quality of the teachers such as their academic credentials instructional competence and their knowledge of subject matter Similarly school restructuring is said to include steps such as transforming the school into a charter school replacing the teaching staff or inviting a private company to administer the school The use of those terms in this work is distinctly different
