Excerpt from An Oriental Biographical Dictionary Founded on Materials Collected by the Late Thomas William Beale The Society confided the labour of seeing the Dictionary through the press to their Philological Secretary Principal Blochmann of whose qualifications it would be presumptuous to say more than that they have an cumenical reputation That distinguished man of whom it has been observed by Count von Noer that he united the enthusiasm of an artist to the most patient accuracy of research undertook the task with his characteristic earnestness and ability But unhappily for oriental scholarship Mr Blochmann's lamented death occurred before he had completed the preparation of more than a few sheets and the duty ultimately reverted to the present Editor The substance as already stated is almost entirely Mr Beale's and I cannot close this notice more fitly than by giving the following extract from the preface originally drafted by himself In preparing a work of this nature intended to be used as a work of reference on matters connected with Oriental History it is proper to state that the greatest care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the narrative as also in the dates of births deaths and other events recorded Various Mss have been collated whenever discrepancy was observed To remove all doubt chronograms indicating the dates with a certainty not to be found by any other method and written when the events were fresh in the minds of men have been inserted when available I may however add that it has been judged expedient to omit these chronograms for the most part in printing the book In the chapter of Mr Dowson s book already cited will be found an account of this species of memoria lechnica About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works A Oriental Biographical is well known have three methods the Haphazard which indeed is no method at all the Gilchristian and the popularised Jonesian introduced by the Government of India under the inspiration of Sir W W Hunter None of these is quite satisfactory The French adopt a system of their own and so do the Germans Mr Beale had followed an orthography compounded of the two first named elements which has been conformed to the third method in printing these pages The principle is mainly to accentuate the long vowels and to express the other vowels by the English sounds in runinant and obey G is always to be pronounced hard as in give For the convenience of Continental European scholars the names have also been printed in the Persian character and it is hoped that no practical difficulty will be experienced by those who may have occasion to use the Dictionary     An Oriental Biographical Dictionary Thomas William Beale, Henry George Keene, 1894     ~Anœ Oriental Biographical Dictionary Thomas William Beale, 1971
