Orphan Of Asia:

Orphan of Asia Zhuoliu Wu,2008-03-22 Born in Taiwan raised in the scholarly traditions of ancient China but forced into the Japanese educational system Hu Taiming the protagonist of Orphan of Asia ultimately finds himself estranged from all three cultures Taiming eventually makes his mark in the colonial Japanese educational system and graduates from a prestigious college However he finds that his Japanese education and his adoption of modern ways have alienated him from his family and native village He becomes a teacher in the Japanese colonial system but soon quits his post and finds that having repudiated his roots he doesn't seem to belong anywhere Thus begins the long journey for Taiming to find his rightful place during which he is accused of spying for both China and Japan and witnesses the effects of Japanese imperial expansion the horrors of war and the sense of anger and powerlessness felt by those living under colonial rule Zhuoliu Wu's autobiographical novel is widely regarded as a classic of modern Asian literature and a groundbreaking expression of the postwar Taiwanese national consciousness Re-reading Translations in Wu Zhuoliu's "Orphan of Asia" (Taiwan, China).

Jennifer Junwa Lau,2013 Re-reading Translations in Wu Zhuoliu's Orphan of Asia Jennifer Junwa Lau,2010 Becoming Japanese Leo T. S. Ching,2001-06-30 In 1895 Japan acquired Taiwan as its first formal colony after a resounding victory in the Sino Japanese war For the next fifty years Japanese rule devastated and transformed the entire socioeconomic and political fabric of Taiwanese society In Becoming Japanese Leo Ching examines the formation of Taiwanese political and cultural identities under the dominant Japanese colonial discourse of assimilation and imperialism from the early 1920s to the end of the Japanese Empire in 1945 Becoming Japanese analyzes the ways in which the Taiwanese struggled negotiated and collaborated with Japanese colonialism during the cultural practices of assimilation and imperialism It chronicles a historiography of colonial identity formations that delineates the shift from a collective and heterogeneous political horizon into a personal and inner struggle of becoming Japanese Representing Japanese colonialism in Taiwan as a topography of multiple associations and identifications made possible through the triangulation of imperialist Japan nationalist China and colonial Taiwan Ching demonstrates the irreducible tension and contradiction inherent in the formations and transformations of colonial identities Throughout the colonial period Taiwanese elites imagined and constructed China as a discursive space where various forms of cultural identification and national affiliation were projected Successfully bridging history and literary studies this bold and imaginative book rethinks the history of Japanese rule in Taiwan by radically expanding its approach to colonial discourses 日本統治下の中国,2000 Dutch Sources on South Asia

Labor in Europe (America, Asia, Africá Australasia, and Polynesia) reports from consuls United States dept. of state,1885 Chinese Central Asia Sir Clarmont Percival Skrine,1926 Chinese Central Asia written in the 1920s is an interesting travelogue of the journey undertaken overland to Chinese Turkistan through the Karakoram Mountains and Passes by C P Skrine the then British Consular General to Chinese Turkistan Our journey starts in dusty Quetta on the borders of Iran It is a story of the times when the main form of travel was on horse back or on foot The luxury of road or air travel was not available to those who wished to travel to the more out of the way regions of the world at that time This opportunity to travel was so inviting to both the author and his wife that he jumped at the chance to visit this region The author leaves no stone unturned to complete his tour and to give us a vivid description of his travels in this remote region In his introduction Younghusband makes a very pertinent statement when he says that our impression of the unchanging belief in the unchangeable east is shattered by the bowler hatted Chinese representative who meets our travellers Our author takes us to many places in his journey and each step gives us a vivid idea of the vistas and ways of the people of that time His travels awake an interest in all of us who have the wanderlust and a desire to visit distant places in this world
