New Directions In Japanese Architecture:

New directions in Japanese architecture Robin Boyd,1968     Make Do with Now Yuma Shinohara,S AM
Schweizerisches Architekturmuseum,Andreas Ruby,2022 Make Do With Now presents a new perspective on Japanese architecture by introducing a young generation of architects and designers Influenced by the Tohoku earthquake and Fukushima nuclear disaster of 2011 they share the desire for a sincere engagement with social economic and ecological issues today Their creative handling of limited resources found materials and existing building stock helps them in their quest to respond to these urgent topics The book s written contributions and photographic essays provide a multifaceted impression of architectural innovation in Japan now including more than 20 current projects and a closer look at five architecture practices     The Constructed Other: Japanese Architecture in the Western Mind Kevin Nute,2021-09-30 The Constructed Other argues that the assumed otherness of Japanese architecture has made it both a testbed for Western architectural theories and a source of inspiration for Western designers The book traces three recurring themes in Western accounts of Japanese architecture from the reopening of Japan in the mid nineteenth century to the present day a wish to see Western architectural theories reflected in Japanese buildings efforts to integrate elements of Japanese architecture into Western buildings and a desire to connect contemporary Japanese architecture with Japanese tradition It is suggested that together these narratives have had the effect of creating what amounts to a mythical version of Japanese architecture often at odds with historical fact but which has exercised a powerful influence on the development of building design internationally     Directions in Japanese Architecture New Robin Boyd,1979     Contemporary Japanese Architecture, Its Development and Challenge Botond Bognár,1985     Capsules: Typology of Other Architecture Peter Šenk,2017-10-12
This book investigates the architectural product design and urban typology of the capsule which beginning in the 1960s broadened the concept of the basic building blocks of architecture to include a minimal living unit called the capsule Here it is presented with regard to the continuity of the development of the Modern Movement its revisionist criticism pioneering examples as well as contemporary examples and uses The typology of the capsule allows us to consider this theme in terms of the architecture of resistance with the potential to search for an other architecture that is embedded in our contemporaneity manifested in small dwellings composite structures and container units shelters and mobile homes in nature and the urban environment technology transfer in high tech designs devices additions and extensions etc The concept of the capsule as a building element of architecture as well as a spatial element can therefore be regarded as having a generative potential for an architecture of personal space for the individual forcing us to reflect on our existing living and dwelling conditions

Materials and Meaning in Contemporary Japanese Architecture Dana Buntrock,2013-09-13 In this beautiful and perceptive book Dana Buntrock examines for the first time how tradition is incorporated into contemporary Japanese architecture Looking at the work of five architects Fumihiko Maki Terunobu Fujimori Ryoji Suzuki Kengo Kuma and Jun Aoki Buntrock reveals the aims influencing many wonderful works barely known in the West the sensual side of Japanese architecture borne out of approaches often less concerned with professionalism than with people and place The buildings described in this book illustrate an architecture that embraces uniqueness expressing unusual stories in the rough outlines of rammed earth and rust and demonstrating new paths opening up for architectural practice today For some these examples will offer new insight into expressions of tradition in Japanese architecture for others this book offers inspiration for their own efforts to assert the unique heritage of other regions around the world Compelling insightful and groundbreaking this book is essential for everyone studying Japanese architecture and anyone trying to invoke narrative and tradition in contemporary design    Adult Catalog: Title Los Angeles County Public Library,1970    Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel,2016-01-23    Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1965    Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1970    Australian National Bibliography ,1971    Art Books, 1950-1979 R.R.
