New Face For The Church:

Our Cry for Life Maria Pilar Aquino, 2002-11-26 The Rise of the Global South Elijah Jong Fil Kim, 2012-04-06 Global Christianity has been experiencing an unprecedented historical transition from the West to the non Western world The leadership of global Christianity has taken on a new face since the twentieth century Christendom in Europe and America has experienced a great decline while there has been a rise in Majority World Christianity Churches in the Global South have given their voices to global Christianity through their leadership world mission movements and theology The phenomenal church growth has risen from the Pentecostal and Charismatic movement Pentecostalism has become the dominant force in global Christianity today The Rise of the Global South examines the significance this shift has had on global Christianity by going through the history of Christianity in the West and the causes of the shift Protestant Pentecostalism in Latin America Karl-Wilhelm Westmeier, 1999 This book is a theological missiological study on the intercultural communication of Faith drawing heavily from anthropological sociological and historical sources The book is helpful to church workers in Latin America to colleagues who teach both on college and seminary levels to scholars who research the phenomenon of Latin American Protestantism to students to Latin American studies and in religion and culture in general Exploring the History and Philosophy of Christian Education Michael J. Anthony, Warren S. Benson, 2011-12-12 In this insightful book two leading scholars in Christian education trace the history of the discipline from the Old Testament to the present Presented against the backdrop of wider philosophical thought and historical events Anthony and Benson show how each successive era shaped the practice of Christian education today The result is a book brimming with insights that reveal the historical roots and philosophical underpinnings of issues relevant to current practice in Christian education ministries The purpose of this book is to provide the reader with more than just valuable insights regarding the past The future is the emphasis of this history book From the Introduction A New Face for the Church Larry Richards, Lawrence O. Richards, 1981-02-01 Collaborative Parish Leadership William A. Clark, Daniel Gast, 2016-12-27 These essays explore team based parish leadership theologically sociologically and pastorally in a variety of cultures and circumstances The result is an extended conversation both practical and deeply reflective emerging from the collaboration of theologians social researchers organizational development specialists and pastoral ministers Collaborative Parish Leadership draws on the experience strengths challenges and insights of the long term pastoral academic partnerships out of which it has grown These include Project INSPIRE a pastoral team formation project sponsored by Loyola University and the Archdiocese of Chicago and funded by the Lilly Endowment Inc as part of its Sustaining Pastoral Excellence initiative Another partner initiative is the international pastoral minister exchange Crossing Over involving several Catholic dioceses in northwest Germany and based at Ruhr Universit t Bochum Authors of these essays have also been involved in Emerging Models of Pastoral Leadership the Congregational Studies Team s Engaged Scholars fellowship both also Lilly Endowment funded projects and other projects

Collaborative Parish Leadership employs practical theological methods rooted in pastoral experience and integrated with scholarly reflection Opening essays deal with the current situation of U S parishes the parish consultancy model of Project INSPIRE and a case study of several parishes that benefited from the project The following chapters present comparative case studies of collaborative leadership in various settings multicultural parishes in different parts of the U S parish clusters consolidating into single parishes using very different processes and parishes in Chicago and Mexico City meeting similar urban challenges Three authors associated with CrossingOver and its participating dioceses assess the general state of parish reorganization in Germany and the potential of the unique approach to team leadership taken in the French archdiocese of Poitiers The final chapters reflect on the theology of parish leadership from pastoral and systematic perspectives and on the future needs and possibilities of collaborative approaches Overall Collaborative Parish Leadership engages and challenges academic and pastoral leaders in diverse social and ecclesial situations suggests multiple models for cultivating collaboration builds connections between collaborative action and theological development
