

Hands

With seeds in palms, life begins,
Gently buried, growth it wins.
Tender touch to tuck them right,
Awaiting sprouts, kissed by light.

Under the sun, hands toil and turn,
For every bloom, a lesson to learn.
Dirt-clad fingers, nature's song,
In gardens where dreams belong.

Hands that plant, hope, and provide,
With every seed, life's promise implied.
Earth's embrace, and patience's dance,
In gardens, hands give life a chance.

Poetry and Critical Writings of Katherine Mansfield Angela Smith, Gerri Kimber, 2019-07-31 Katherine Mansfield's non-fiction collected in one volume for the first time. This volume redefines Katherine Mansfield as a critic, translator, and poet. Bringing together all of Mansfield's poetry, some 179 poems and several songs, her literary translations including letters by Anton Chekhov as well as those of Dostoevsky to his wife, her witty, sometimes scorching parodies and pastiches, her imaginative aphorisms, her many incisive and heartfelt reviews of the novels of the day, and her essays including those for the little magazine Rhythm, this collection attests to the enormous variety and distinctiveness of the non-fiction writing that Mansfield produced, some of it unpublished until this edition. For the first time, Mansfield scholars and devotees can read all of Mansfield's non-fiction work, which expands considerably on previous partial editions of her poems or critical writings. Arranged chronologically and with perceptive notes and a General Introduction by two leading Mansfield scholars, this is at last the Edition that Mansfield deserves. This volume of Mansfield's poetry and critical writing comprises: Book reviews not collected since 1987 and incomplete; Poetry not collected since 1988 and incomplete; Translations not previously collected; Essays not collected since 1987 and incomplete; Parodies not previously collected; Pastiches not previously collected; Key Features. Material has been out of print for decades. Fully annotated. Some material has never been collected or seen before.

Paul Auster and the Influence of Maurice Blanchot María Laura Arce, 2016-04-05 Poet, writer, and filmmaker Paul Auster is one of the great contributors to American postmodern literature. Influenced by authors like Poe and the hardboiled detective stories of the 1950s, Auster's novels represented a new genre of anti-detective fiction in which the case itself loses direction and is overshadowed by existential questions. Analyzing three of his novels: Ghosts (1986), The Music of Chance (1990), and Mr. Vertigo (1994), this critical study explores the intertextual relationship between Auster's work and the oeuvre of French writer and critic Maurice Blanchot. The author explores Auster's work as a fictionalization of Blanchot's concept of inspiration and the construction of imaginary space. The Complete Poems of Edgar Allan Poe Edgar Allan Poe, 1911
