,1967     Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime Francesca Billiani, Laura Pennacchietti, 2019-09-14 Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime discusses the relationship between the novel and architecture during the Fascist period in Italy 1922 1943 By looking at two profoundly diverse aesthetic phenomena within the context of the creation of a Fascist State art Billiani and Pennacchietti argue that an effort of construction or reconstruction was the main driving force behind both projects the advocated revolution of the novel form realism and that of architecture rationalism The book is divided into seven chapters which in turn analyze the interconnections between the novel and architecture in theory and in practice The first six chapters cover debates on State art on the novel and on architecture as well as their historical development and their unfolding in key journals of the period The last chapter offers a detailed analysis of some important novels and buildings which have in practice realized some of the key principles articulated in the theoretical disputes     New Italian Architecture. (Translation Into English by E. Rockwell.) [With Illustrations.] Ger. & Eng Alberto Galardi, Erwin ROCKWELL, 1967     Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedic of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries     Italy Diane Ghirardo, 2013-02-15 Packed in its dense historic city centers Italy holds some of the most prized architecture and art in the world with which planners and politicians have had to negotiate as they struggle to cope with massive migration from the countryside to the city Early modern architecture coincided with a sustained drive to transform a country that was still primarily rural into a modern industrial state and throughout the twentieth century architects in Italy have attempted to define the role of architecture within a capitalist economy and under diverse political systems In Italy Modern Architectures in History Diane Yvonne Ghirardo addresses these and other issues in her analysis of the last century of Italy's building practices Specifically she examines the post unification efforts to identify a distinctly Italian architectural language as well as the transformation of the urban environment in Italian cities undergoing industrialization in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries She challenges received interpretations of modern architecture and also looks at the subject of illegal building and current responses to ecological challenges In order to illuminate the full scope of the building industry in Italy her examples are drawn not only from the work of widely published architects in the largest cities but from throughout the peninsula including small towns and rural areas Insightful reading for those interested in Italian culture this book offers a new way of understanding the architectural history of modern Italy     Italian Architecture 1965-1970 Marco Dezzi Bardeschi, 1973
