Nationalism in Sri Lanka Anoma Pieris,2013 The role of the home the domestic sphere and the intimate ethno cultural identities that are cultivated within it are critical to understanding the polemical constructions of country and city tradition and modernity and regionalism and cosmopolitanism The home is fundamental to ideas of the homeland that give nationalism its imaginative form and its political trajectory This book explores positions that are vital to ideas of national belonging through the history of colonial bourgeois self fashioning and post colonial identity construction in Sri Lanka The country remains central to related architectural discourses due to its emergence as a critical site for regional architecture post independence Suggesting patterns of indigenous accommodation and resistance that are expressed through built form the book argues that the nation grows as an extension of an indigenous private sphere ostensibly uncontaminated by colonial influences domesticating institutions and appropriating rural geographies in the pursuit of its hegemonic ideals This ambitious comprehensive wide ranging book presents an abundance of new and original material and many imaginative insights into the history of architecture and nationalism from the mid nineteenth century to the present day The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Homes through World History James M. Steele, 2009-03-30 The house throughout history in every place in the world has been built to provide shelter from the elements The dwellings that have resulted are as different as the people that have built them the social norms that prevailed at the time and place in which they were built and the natural environment that they adapted to Studying them now in a comprehensive way allows us to understand the social political economic and religious conditions that existed for their inhabitants They are a three dimensional record of culture Twenty four pages of color images along with black and white images through three volumes illustrate the homes of people throughout the world The volumes cover ancient times to the late Middle Ages the Renaissance to the Industrial Revolution and the Post Industrial Revolution to the Present The Sustainable City XII C.A. and prompting exciting possibilities for charting the ineffable spaces of the divine which lie somehow beyond geography. In setting itself that task this book pushes the boundaries of geographies of religion to bring into direct focus questions of spirituality. By seeing religion through the lens of practice rather than as a set of beliefs geographies of religion can be interpreted much more widely bringing a whole range of other spiritual practices and spaces to light. The book is split into three sections each contextualised with an editor's introduction to explore the spaces of spiritual practice the spiritual production of space and spiritual transformations. This book intends to open up new questions and approaches through the theme of spirituality pushing the boundaries on current topics and introducing innovative new ideas including esoteric or radical spiritual practices. This landmark book not only captures a significant moment in geographies of spirituality but acts as a catalyst for future work.

The Courtyard House Nasser O. Rabbat, 2017-07-05 The courtyard house is one of the most enduring architectural forms transcending regional historical and cultural boundaries. Its balance of simple appropriate construction, environmental control and social and familial structures continues to engage architects and architectural historians. That the courtyard house is still relevant today is indicated through its ability to accommodate continual transformation without losing any of its formal integrity and cultural roots. This book presents a series of viewpoints on courtyard houses from different periods and in different regions around the world from the Harem courtyards of the Topkapi Palace and the low cost housing settlements of Casablanca to contemporary design strategies for courtyard houses in the arid Gulf region. Together the essays illuminate issues of particular relevance in architectural art historical and conservation discourses today.

A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Asst Prof David Rifkind, Dr Elie G Haddad, 2014-03-28 This book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010. The first section provides a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world. This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects.

Southeast Asia's Modern Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang, Imran bin Tajudeen, 2019 What is the modern in Southeast Asia's architecture and how do we approach its study critically? This pathbreaking multidisciplinary volume is the first critical survey of Southeast Asia's modern architecture. It looks at the challenges of studying this complex history through the conceptual frameworks of translation, epistemology and power. Challenging Eurocentric ideas and architectural nomenclature, the authors examine the development of modern architecture in Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam with a focus on selective translation and strategic appropriation of imported ideas and practices by local architects and builders. The book transforms our understandings of the region's modern architecture by moving beyond a consideration of architecture as an aesthetic artifact.

and instead examining its entanglement with different dynamics of power Traditional Dwellings and Settlements Working Paper Series ,2012 Vernacular Architecture Newsletter ,2004 The Past in the Present P. Nas,2006 The concepts of Indonesian architecture and architecture in Indonesia are both quite difficult to pin down For the architecture of this small country incorporates influences from many important cultures from India China and the Middle East to countries in the West and is therefore extremely multifaceted In fact one might reasonably ask whether a real Indonesian architecture actually exists even with reference to the country s vernacular work which is highly diverse from an ethnic perspective in and of itself The quest for an authentic Indonesian architecture has in fact been the subject of debate among architects there for many years especially in regards to the work has been exported to other countries in particular its former colonizer the Netherlands In fact there is even a name for the hybrid style that originated during that era Indische This very nicely designed collection of illustrated essays which features a special section of pictures and drawings of colonial architecture provides a real sense of the diversity of building in modern day Indonesia while at the same time recognizing that such a perspective cannot be productive without taking history into account With chapters on Modern Indonesian architecture vernacular traditions mosques the effect of the Chinese diaspora hybrid historic contemporary Balinese architecture the colonial period Indische architecture and Art Deco and more this publication provides an amazing overview and a long overdue investigation of Indische work Preface by Aaron Betsky Beyond Bawa David Robson,2007 Takes a look at Geoffrey Bawa s life and career and at the legacy of his influence through the work of contemporary architects working across southeast Asia Living the Modern Claudia Perren,Kristien Ring,2007 Since the nineteen fifties a unique form of modern architecture has been developing in Australia a progressive modernism which involves the dynamic combination of tradition and transformation This catalogue accompanies the exhibition Living the Modern_Australian Architecture and analyzes this culture and environment specific architecture using its residential constructions as a basis for examination The scope of the book extends from detached family houses to high rise buildings Examples of early design from the post war period are explored in an introductory overview but the focus of the publication is directed towards a diverse mix of twenty five Australian architects For the last fifteen years they have been applying interpreting or reworking modernist approaches but despite fame in their homeland their outstanding and refreshing productions remain largely unheard of in Europe Including texts by Richard Blythe Philip Drew Philip Goad Gevork Hartoonian Tom Heneghan Hannah Lewi Elizabeth Musgrave Stephen Neille Claudia Perren Kristien Ring and Peter Wilson Book jacket Imagining Modernity Anoma Pieris,Social Scientists Association of Sri Lanka,2007 This book is a detailed study of the architecture of Valentine Gunasekara 1931 2017 It provides an innovative lens to understand the formation of a Ceylonese middle class which was inspired by the post independence desire for modernity Their experiments values and dynamic social history are the framework for this research Although neglected by his peers and marginalized by the prevalent discourse on vernacular regionalism Gunasekara's work poses important questions regarding the utopian ideals of the modernist project and its successes and its failures in Asia. More significantly his work reveals the European and American influences that shaped the first generation of Ceylonese architects and their efforts at adapting new materials and technologies to a very different climate and culture. This book documents a wide range of Gunasekara's projects including residential, religious and commercial buildings, arguing that they represented a nascent cosmopolitanism from below that proved to be quite antithetical to regionalist trends in architecture. This e-book is a re-publication of an earlier edition published by Stamford Lake in 2007. Tempo, 2005. Chinese More Or Less Kristin Feireiss, Hans-Jürgen Commerell, 2006.
