New Domestic Interiors Carles Broto, 2005 A meticulously selected collection of home interiors accompanied by exhaustive technical documentation ground plans sketches materials architectonic processes     Domestic Interiors Georgina Downey, 2013-08-15 In the act of enclosing space and making rooms we make and define our aspirations and identities Taking a room by room approach this fascinating volume explores how representations of domestic space have embodied changing spatial configurations and values and considers how we see modern individuals in the process of making themselves at home Scholars from the US UK and Australasia re visit and re think interiors by Bonnard Matisse Degas and Vuillard as well as the great spaces of early modernity the drawing room in Rossetti's house hallways in Hampstead Garden Suburb the Paris attic of the Brothers Goncourt Sch tte Lihotzky's Frankfurt Kitchen to explore how interior making has changed from the Victorian to the modern period From the smallest room the bathroom to the spacious verandas of Singapore Deco Domestic Interiors focuses on modern rooms imaged and imagined it builds a distinct body of knowledge around the interior interiority representation and modernity and creates a rich resource for students and scholars in art architecture and design history     New Domestic Interiors Carles Broto, 2013     Home Interiors, 1916     The Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior, 1400-1700 Erin J. Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller, Elizabeth Carroll Consavari, 2016-03-23 Emphasizing on the one hand the reconstruction of the material culture of specific residences and on the other the way in which particular domestic objects reflect shape and mediate family values and relationships within the home this volume offers a distinct contribution to research on the early modern Italian domestic interior Though the essays mainly take an art historical approach the book is interdisciplinary in that it considers the social implications of domestic objects for family members of different genders age and rank as well as for visitors to the home By adopting a broad chronological framework that encompasses both Renaissance and Baroque Italy and by expanding the regional scope beyond Florence and Venice to include domestic interiors from less studied centers such as Urbino Ferrara and Bologna this collection offers genuinely new perspectives on the home in early modern Italy     Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior Erin J. Campbell, 2016-03-09 Though portraits of old women mediate cultural preoccupations just as effectively as those of younger women the scant published research on images of older women belies their significance within early modern Italy This study examines the remarkable flowering largely overlooked in portraiture scholarship to date of portraits of old women in Northern Italy and especially Bologna during the second half of the sixteenth century when as a result of religious reform the lives of women and the family came under increasing scrutiny Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior draws on a wide range of primary visual sources including portraits religious images architectural views prints and drawings as well as extant palazzi and case furnishings and domestic objects created by the leading artists in Bologna including Lavinia Fontana Bartolomeo Passerotti Denys Calvaert and the Carracci

The study also draws on an array of historical sources including sixteenth century theories of portraiture prescriptive writings on women and the family philosophical and practical treatises on the home economy sumptuary legislation books of secrets prescriptive writings on old age and household inventories to provide new historical perspectives on the domestic life of the propertied classes in Bologna during the period Author Erin Campbell contends that these images of unidentified women are not only crucial to our understanding of the cultural operations of art within the early modern world but also by working from the margins to revise the center provide an opportunity to present new conceptual frameworks and question our assumptions about old age portraiture and the domestic interior
