New Essays On The Awakening:

New Essays on The Awakening , New Essays on The Awakening ANON.,1988 Rich and Strange Marianne DeKoven,1991-10-27 Like the products of the sea change described in Ariel's song in The Tempest modernist writing is rich and strange Its greatness lies in its density and its dislocations which have until now been viewed as a repudiation of and an alternative to the cultural implications of turn of the century political radicalism Marianne DeKoven argues powerfully to the contrary maintaining that modernist form evolved precisely as a means of representing the terrifying appeal of movements such as socialism and feminism Organized around pairs and groups of female and male signed texts the book reveals the gender inflected ambivalence of modernist writers Male modernists desiring utter change nevertheless feared the loss of hegemony it might entail while female modernists feared punishment for desiring such change With water imagery as a focus throughout DeKoven provides extensive new readings of canonical modernist texts and of works in the feminist and African American canons not previously considered modernist Building on insights of Luce Irigaray Klaus Theweleit and Jacques Derrida she finds in modernism a paradigm of unresolved contradiction that enacts in the realm of form an alternative to patriarchal gender relations

Revisionary Interventions Into the Americanist Canon Donald E. Pease,1994-06-17 Throughout the era of the Cold War a consensus reigned as to what constituted the great works of American literature Yet as scholars have increasingly shown and as this volume unmistakably demonstrates that consensus was built upon the repression of the voices and historical contexts of subordinated social groups as well as literary works themselves works both outside and within the traditional canon This book is an effort to recover those lost voices Engaging New Historicist neo Marxist poststructuralist and other literary practices this volume marks important shifts in the organizing principles and self understanding of the field of American Studies Originally published as a special issue of boundary 2 the essays gathered here discuss writers as diverse as Kate Chopin Frederick Douglass Emerson Melville W D Howells Henry James W E B DuBois and Mark Twain plus the historical figure John Brown Two major sections devoted to the theory of romance and to cultural historical analyses emphasize the political perspective of New Americanist literary and cultural study Contributors William E Cain Wai chee Dimock Howard Horwitz Gregory S Jay Steven Mailloux John McWilliams Susan Mizruchi Donald E Pease Ivy Schweitzer Priscilla Wald Michael Warner Robert Weimann

Gendered Agents Silvestra Mariniello,Paul A. Bové,1998 Gathered from various issues of the journal BOUNDARY 2 the essays in GENDERED AGENTS assess questions of sexuality ethics race psychoanalysis subjectivity and identity meant to challenge traditional Western epistemology and suggest new directions for feminism These bold essays will interest not only feminist theorists and activists but academics from a variety of disciplines such as philosophy sociology anthropology etc

2005 ,2005 The Mississippi Quarterly ,2011 El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006 The Femme Fatale in American Literature Ghada Suleiman Sasa,2008 Characters in the literary tradition of American naturalism are usually perceived as passive lacking in will weak and predetermined They are constantly seen as the victims of heredity and environment and their lives are shaped according to these strong forces that operate upon them This interesting book examines the representation of female characters in American naturalism and argues that women in American naturalism are often represented as femmes fatales Since heredity and environment are the determining factors in their lives they are victims who have no control However with characters such as Trina Sieppe in Frank Norris s McTeague Caroline Meeber in Theodore Dreiser s Sister Carrie Edna Pontellier in Kate Chopin s The Awakening and Helga Crane in Nella Larsen s Quicksand these women victims gradually turn themselves into victimizers in order to conquer both heredity and environment They consciously and deliberately use the only power they have that can help them overcome the naturalistic world in which they are entrapped the power of the feminine The book explains who exactly the femme fatale that has been born out of American naturalism is and explores images of women in American realism who precede the femme fatale of American naturalism This study examines characters like Trina Sieppe Caroline Meeber Edna Pontellier and Helga Crane It analyzes these women s backgrounds their demeanors their temperaments their experiences and their settings and explains how and when each woman decides to use her sexuality There is also a brief discussion of other femmes fatales in American naturalism such as Stephen Crane s Maggie A Girl of the Streets Although the perception of women in nineteenth century American literature has always had its place in discussions of literary texts this book is unique in its argument that women in American naturalism are neither weak nor passive but rather are strong and daring women who try diligently to find a means of fighting back This book is an important addition to collections in literature and Women s studies
