Living Books Janneke Adema, 2021-08-31 Reimagining the scholarly book as living and collaborative not as commodified and essentialized but in all its dynamic materiality In this book Janneke Adema proposes that we reimagine the scholarly book as a living and collaborative project not as linear bound and fixed but as fluid remixed and liquid a space for experimentation She presents a series of cutting edge experiments in arts and humanities book publishing showcasing the radical new forms that book based scholarly work might take in the digital age Adema's proposed alternative futures for the scholarly book go beyond such print based assumptions as fixity stability the single author originality and copyright reaching instead for a dynamic and emergent materiality Adema suggests ways to unbind the book describing experiments in scholarly book publishing with new forms of anonymous collaborative authorship radical open access publishing and processual living and remixed publications among other practices She doesn't cast digital as the solution and print as the problem the problem in scholarly publishing she argues is not print itself but the way print has been commodified and essentialized Adema explores alternative more ethical models of authorship constructs an alternative genealogy of openness and examines opportunities for intervention in current cultures of knowledge production Finally asking why it is that we cut and bind our research together at all she examines two book publishing projects that experiment with remix and reuse and try to rethink and reperform the book apparatus by taking responsibility for the cuts they make Virtual Geography McKenzie

Wark, 1994-11-22 The author's capacity to grasp and interpret these world media events is astounding and her ability to provide insights into a world where unbounded information is circling the earth with the speed of light is startling Choice a wide ranging quirky and dextrous mix of description theory and analysis that documents the perils of the global telecommunications network Times Literary Supplement this is a stimulating even moving book dense with ideas and with many quotable lines The New Statesman Wark is one of the most original and interesting cultural critics writing today Lawrence Grossberg McKenzie Wark writes about the experience of everyday life under the impact of increasingly global media vectors We no longer have roots we have aeriels We no longer have origins we have terminals Förhandlingar

Språkvetenskapliga sällskapet i Uppsala, 1918 The Routledge Companion to Remix Studies Eduardo Navas, Owen Gallagher, xtine burrough, 2014-11-27 The Routledge Companion to Remix Studies comprises contemporary texts by key authors and artists who are active in the emerging field of remix studies As an organic international movement remix culture originated in the popular music culture of the 1970s and has since grown into a rich cultural activity encompassing numerous forms of media The act of recombining pre-existing material brings up pressing questions of authenticity reception authorship copyright and the techno politics of media activism This book approaches remix studies from various angles including sections on history aesthetics ethics politics and practice and presents theoretical chapters alongside case studies of remix projects The Routledge Companion to Remix Studies is a valuable resource for both researchers and remix practitioners as well as a teaching tool for instructors using remix practices in the classroom

The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non/Human Fabienne Collignon, 2022-12-30 The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non Human defines conceptualizes and evaluates the insectile pertaining to an entomological fascination in relation to subject formation The book is driven by a central dynamic between form and formlessness further staging an investigation of the phenomenon of fascination using Lacanian psychoanalysis suggesting that the psychodrama of subject formation plays itself out entomologically The book's engagement with the insectile its enactments cultural dreamwork fantasy transformations in forming the so called human subject undertakes a broader deconstruction of said subject and demonstrates the foundational but occluded role of the insectile in subject formation It tracks the insectile across the archives of psychoanalysis seventeenth century still life painting novels from the nineteenth century to the present day and post 1970s film The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non Human will be of interest for scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates in film studies visual culture popular culture cultural and literary studies comparative literature and critical theory offering the insectile as new category for theoretical thought

Theatre and the Israel-Palestine Conflict Azza Harras, 2025-02-20 This book delves into the complex narratives surrounding the ongoing Israeli Palestinian dispute through the unique lens of theatre This ground breaking exploration employs postcolonial theory to analyze a diverse array of theatrical works by Israeli Palestinian and Western playwrights By juxtaposing portrayals of significant events such as the Nakba or the Israeli War of Independence the Intifadas and the experiences of diaspora and exile Harras provides a nuanced examination of how these events are represented on stage The book reveals the profound impact of language in constructing and contesting historical narratives and underscores theatre's role as a space for cultural critique and self reflection This comprehensive study offers new insights into the power of artistic expression to challenge historical dichotomies and encourage a deeper understanding of this enduring conflict Essential for scholars of Postcolonial Studies Middle East Studies and the Performing Arts this work invites readers to reconsider the conflict through the transformative lens of theatre
