New Guinea Diary:

New Guinea Diaries, 1871-1883 Nikolai Nikolaevich Miklukho-Maklai, 1975 Non Aboriginal material New Guinea Diary Sidney Goldman, 2015-09-17 A direct transcription from a one year diary kept while serving as a physician in a jungle outpost in New Guinea Formatted with bold dated entries to keep the reader interested from start to finish Laugh and cry with Perry Goldman MD and cheer for him when tiny successes are achieved WWII in the Pacific began brutally for the United States after the attack on Pearl Harbor Establishing outposts far across the ocean after having lost so many ships was a daunting task Port Moresby a small city in the southeast corner of New Guinea became a tenuous beginning foothold in an attempt to curb the Japanese expansion American physicians of all ages enlisted in the armed forces Perry Goldman MD was already 33 years old married with a three year old son and practicing General Medicine in Detroit Michigan when he joined the fight Without much in the way of intensive training for his role he was rapidly assigned temporary duty in San Francisco and shortly thereafter flown overseas to Australia and then transferred by train and airplane to a small jungle post outside of Port Moresby Perry began a personal diary the day he left San Francisco in November of 1942 and continued daily entries for exactly one year His inner strength emotional resilience and diverse observations of war army politics fellow soldiers and even humorous interjections have been transcribed by his son Sidney Goldman MD as a work of remembrance and respect Intended originally for Perry's family and friends the work has great appeal for anyone interested in this segment of the war since very few of the surviving participants spoke openly about their difficult experiences during their lifetime In fact after concluding his one year diary with a question as to when and if he would come home alive Perry remained in the Pacific an additional ten months thereby totaling 22 months in the region The diary is filled with thoughts wishes prayers and hopes throughout and the reader will identify with Perry's distress and also learn his eventual fate with addendum added by the author Photographs inserted were copied from Perry's own collection adding visual testimony to some of the entries War Diary, 1942 George Henry Johnston, 1984 1942 was a crucial year for Australia it was under the direct threat of invasion and was the year of the New Guinea campaign although in this diary George Johnston's immediate observations and insights of day to day conflicts and the disease hunger and conditions faced by individual servicemen New Guinea Diary George Henry Johnston, 1946 The New Guinea Diaries 1871- 1883 N N Miklouho-Maclay, 2023-05-01 Pioneering ecologist and humanist N N Miklouho Maclay lived at a time of great colonial and industrial expansion he was a pupil of the German philosopher Ernst Haeckel To prove that the people of all races are equally human Maclay went to the island of New Guinea 1870 the first white man to do so and stayed years with native Papuans while the rest of the world presumed he had been eaten His diaries are testimony to his time in New Guinea where he observed a native culture untouched by the outside world Maclay describes his first meeting with the natives A few Papuans moved closer to me Suddenly two arrows flashed in rapid succession close by me As the first arrow passed me by the eyes of many natives were fixed upon me trying to read the impressions in my face except for fatigue and curiosity registered I no emotion He was instead befriended by the Papuans they called him Tamo Russ believing that he had descended from the moon The diaries were originally edited with the help of Russian author Leo Tolstoy The books sold millions of copies in Eastern Europe Maclay tried hard to save Papuans and their traditional culture and died disillusioned at the age of 42 He tried to revise Darwin s theory of the selection of the species and challenged the idea that certain races of people are born genetically superior The New Guinea Diaries provide an authentic portrait of a timeless sustainable and egalitarian tribal society before the Europeans moved into the area The book is illustrated with original drawings made by Maclay during his New Guinean expedition Devil Boats C.J.

Skamarakas,2023-03-01 PT boats loom large in the popular imagination of World War II In March 1942 a PT boat evacuated Gen Douglas MacArthur his family and top staff from the Philippines which inspired the war movie They Were Expendable directed by John Ford and starring John Wayne John F Kennedy became a war hero while commanding PT 109 which collided with a Japanese destroyer and was sunk in August 1943 But the story of PT boats has never been told in the depth and detail that their exemplary service deserves Naval historian C J Skamarakas uses one Pacific PT boat squadron to tell the story of PT boats in action in World War II Eighty feet long PT boats were designed to launch torpedoes against enemy ships five and ten times their own size But defects in the torpedoes and the boats speed and maneuverability ultimately shifted the boats mission to patrolling and breaking up Japanese shipping and reinforcements In the waters of the Southwest Pacific as part of MacArthur s offensives in New Guinea and the Philippines Motor Torpedo Boat Squadron 25 completed these missions and also executed other operations for which they weren t specifically trained including inserting commandos behind enemy lines air sea rescue raids on enemy positions reconnaissance of potential sites for amphibious landings coordination of air strikes in support of ground forces meetings with guerrilla leaders recovery of prisoners of war diversionary activities and psychological operations Today we would call many of their missions special ops The Japanese called PT boats mosquitoes and devil boats The Devil Boats recounts the unique contributions of one motor torpedo boat squadron and through it tells the story of PT boats in the Pacific War With drama and excitement as well as careful attention to detail the book fills a void in the history of the U S Navy in World War II Father's New Guinea diary, Dec Joseph Edmund Carne,P.
