New Idea Survival Guide:

The New IDEA Survival Guide Sabrina Holcomb, Ed Amundson, Patti Ralabate, 2000 Music Teacher's Survival Guide Rosalie A. Haritun, 1994 This unique resource is packed with innovative tested strategies timesavers and problem solvers to help K-8 music teachers in virtually every aspect of their work from lesson planning and general music instruction to classroom management and discipline. Written in a highly readable style with light-hearted illustrations throughout the GUIDE identifies the specific skills and behaviors associated with teaching and learning each of the specialized areas of music.

Bright Ideas Mary C. Clement, 1997 This checklist for beginning teachers as well as school administrators, mentors, teacher supervisors and student teachers includes five sections: Prepare Personally and Professionally, the last year in college and getting hired as a teacher, Success on the Job, know when to say no, take advantage of a mentor network to keep current, stress management and self-care, and know what one does and why. Communication Skills: telephoning parents, written communication, parent conferences and communicating with colleagues and administrators. Classroom Management: create workable plans, access students' interests and knowledge, accept today's students, vary teaching strategies to reach today's students and the special needs student. Advice from Cyberspace: ideas gathered for new teachers by posting a message soliciting information on various message boards. Contains 70 bibliographic references.

SM Rehabilitation Review Fred Houdlett Albee, Frederic G. Elton, 1927 Meeting the Challenge Patti Ralabate, 2002 This book is intended to serve as a freestanding reference for teachers whose classes include students with academic or behavioral difficulties. The recommended best practices were originally developed for students with disabilities but have been found to be effective with all students. Each chapter provides principles, suggestions and specific tools such as sample check lists, rubrics, forms, word lists, observation guides, planning guides and lesson plans. Chapters address the following critical areas: 1. evaluating struggling students using classroom based assessment; 2. observing behavior and positively addressing behavioral challenges; 3. using a collaborative team process; 4. developing educationally relevant student expectations; 5. providing accommodations and modifications; and 6. communicating effectively with parents. A glossary is provided as is an appendix with blank forms for all of the resources discussed in the text. Twenty-four non-print resources including CD ROMs, videos and Web sites are listed. Contains 42 references.
