New Individualism:

The New Individualism Anthony Elliott, Prof Charles Lemert, Charles Lemert, 2005-11-14 Corporate networking compulsive consumerism plastic surgery therapeutic tribulations instant identity makeovers and reality TV welcome to life in our increasingly individualized world In this dazzling book Anthony Elliott and Charles Lemert explore the culture of the new individualism generated by global capitalism and develop a major new perspective on people's emotional experiences of globalization The New Individualism offers fascinating but disturbing accounts of people struggling to cope with a new individualism reshaping the world today There is Larry a high tech executive emotionally wrecked by success there is Ruth a married woman in her late fifties typing real time erotica in cyberspace there is Norman a recovering drug addict infected with HIV reinventing himself by accepting the deadly worlds for what they are and Caoimhe and Annie two little girls only beginning to explore the disorientating effects of the new individualism This book powerfully cuts against the grain of current orthodoxies that view globalization as corrosive of private life Elliott and Lemert argue that today's worlds are not only risky but deadly Yet there is hope the authors contend beyond the complexities Voted into the 50 Best Management Books For 2006 by The Australian Financial Review Deadly Worlds Charles C. Lemert, Anthony Elliott, 2006 Deadly Worlds offers an original analysis of one of the unsolved questions of the current age what are the emotional costs and possibilities of globalization Lemert and Elliott challenge the dominant interpretations of the late modern world by delving below the surface of cultural and economic theories to explore theories of the new individualism Against European ideas that the individual is either a manipulated artifact of mass culture or a reflexive self facing global risks they pose the possibility that the new worlds are actually deadly Against the American tradition of viewing the individual as having abandoned her moral center they suggest the necessity of rediscovered aggression as a proper moral quality Deadly Worlds is controversial but also plain spoken and intriguing It dares to rework the case method by telling the stories of real individuals Kelly struggling to find herself by plastic surgery Norman responding to a positive HIV status by remaking his community Larry desperately seeking to control the world's demands by therapy Phyllis using her natural gift for aggression to heal and build institutions The life stories root the book's themes in worlds all can recognize while the presentation of the prevailing theories of globalization and its effects expand the reader's social imagination to new possibilities The New Individualism Richard Botelho, 1996 Concepts of the Self Anthony Elliott, 2020-05-07 This new updated edition provides a lively lucid and compelling introduction to contemporary controversies over the self and self identity in the social sciences and humanities In an accessible and concise format the book ranges from classical intellectual traditions of symbolic interactionism psychoanalysis and Foucauldian theory through feminism and postfeminism to postmodernism and the mobilities paradigm With characteristic verve and clarity Anthony Elliott explores the relationship between power identity and personhood connecting varied theoretical debates directly to matters of contemporary relevance and urgency such as identity politics the sociology of personal relationships and intimacy and the politics of sexuality This edition also includes a new chapter on the digital revolution which situates the self and work life transformations within the context of AI Industry 4.0 advanced robotics and accelerating automation Offering thoughtful entry points to a rich and complex literature along with robust critical responses to each theory Concepts of the Self will continue to be an invaluable text for students of social and political theory sociology social psychology cultural studies and gender studies

Subjectivity in the Twenty-First Century Romin W. Tafarodi, 2013-09-23 What is it like to be a person today To think feel and act as an individual in a time of accelerated social cultural technological and political change This question is inspired by the double meaning of subjectivity as both the first personness of consciousness being a subject of experience and the conditioning of that consciousness within society being subject to power authority or influence The contributors to this volume explore the perils and promise of the self in today's world Their shared aim is to describe where we stand and what is at stake as we move ahead in the twenty first century They do so by interrogating the historical moment as a predicament of the subject Their shared focus is on subjectivity as a dialectic of self and other or individual and society and how the defining tensions of subjectivity are reflected in contemporary forms of individualism identity autonomy social connection and political consciousness

The Consequences of Global Disasters Anthony Elliott, Eric Hsu, 2016-04-14 Disasters of the 21st century differ substantially from other kinds of hazards that previous societies have had to cope with because of the twin forces of globalization and the communications revolution But what makes today's disasters industrial technological environmental and socio cultural so different in scope and impact What are the possible disasters of the future And how can we as collective humanity best manage and respond to the globalization of disasters The Consequences of Global Disasters makes a distinctive contribution to the ever expanding field of disaster research by developing a multi contextual multi disciplinary and multi methodological approach to the social analysis of disasters Anthony Elliott and Eric L Hsu have brought together a highly distinguished group of international contributors to focus on how people react to the unsettling effects of disasters which come in a multitude of forms Numerous contributors concentrate on the cultural political and psychological ramifications of the 2011 Great East Japan earthquake and tsunami but disasters in other contexts such as Australia China and Haiti are considered as well By offering unique empirical methodological and theoretical insights The Consequences of Global Disasters sets an agenda for future developments in the field of disaster research and will be a key resource for students and scholars working in social science disciplines such as sociology cultural studies international relations psycho social studies social work Japanese studies and social theory Identity Troubles Anthony

Elliott,2015-10-29 In our turbulent world of global flows and digital transformations pervasive identity crises and self reinvention have become increasingly central to everyday life In this fascinating book Anthony Elliott shows how global transformations the new electronic economy digital worlds biotechnologies and artificial intelligence generates a metamorphosis across the force field of identities today Identity Troubles documents various contemporary mutations of identity from robotics to biomedicine from cosmetic surgery to digital lives and considers their broader social cultural and political consequences Elliott offers a synthesis of the key conceptual innovations in identity studies in the context of recent social theory He critically examines accounts of individualization reflexivity liquidization and new maladies of the soul situating these in wider social and historical contexts and drawing out critical themes He follows with a series of chapters looking at how what is truly new in contemporary life is having profound consequences for identities both private and public This book will be essential reading for undergraduate students in sociology cultural studies political science and human geography It offers the first comprehensive overview of identity studies in the interdisciplinary field of social theory The Open Court Paul Carus,1911 Impacts of Interdependencies Between Strategies on an Individual's Increase in

Relative Status - An Exploratory Study Marcel Mazur,2011-07-12 Master s Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 1 0 ESCP Europe Business School Campus London Institut f r Marketing course Konsumentenverhalten language English abstract PURPOSE The various efforts of individuals to raise their status as recognised by others have previously been understood as measures independent from one another This thesis critically questions this rigid perspective and points out reasons that would lead one to conclude interdependencies between the individual measures The thesis points out that individuals use the interdependent measures in a strategic way depending on their economic e g income property and social e g education upbringing circumstances and combine them with one another according to certain criteria in order to raise their relative status advantage vis vis others FINDINGS The results of the study show that individuals use various combinations of strategies to raise their status depending on their economic and social circumstances The results were applied to the model of Pierre Bourdieu 1984 with a differentiation between economic and cultural capital The differentiation between directly existing and externally signalled economic and cultural capital at times showed significant differences The individuals depending on the reference group their existing status norms as well as their demographic circumstances signalise the strategy used to a varying degree The predominant norms in the various reference groups prompt individuals to signalise strategies to promote their status externally to a varying degree Since status is a relative construct individuals can only raise their status through strategies that they also signalise externally Based on these findings various clusters were defined that individuals depending on their directly existing capital in the sense of Bourdieu allocate to the specific situation With the inte The Modern State Robert Morrison MacIver,1928
