Coin-Op Comics Anthology: 1997-2017 Peter Hoey,2018-05-23 This first ever collection by the award winning team of siblings Peter and Maria Hoey encompasses the very best of their inventive and mysterious comics The compilation ranges from the Hoeys early comics in Blab Magazine to their groundbreaking newest series Coin Op All in all it s more than twenty short stories and vignettes about music and film the comic and the absurd the past and the future all sparkling with innovative storytelling and design Alternative Comics Charles Hatfield,2009-11-12 In the 1980s a sea change occurred in comics Fueled by Art Spiegelman and Fran oise Mouly s avant garde anthology Raw and the launch of the Love Rockets series by Gilbert Jaime and Mario Hernandez the decade saw a deluge of comics that were more autobiographical emotionally realistic and experimental than anything seen before These alternative comics were not the scatological satires of the 1960s underground nor were they brightly colored newspaper strips or superhero comic books In Alternative Comics An Emerging Literature Charles Hatfield establishes the parameters of alternative comics by closely examining long form comics in particular the graphic novel He argues that these are fundamentally a literary form and offers an extensive critical study of them both as a literary genre and as a cultural phenomenon Combining sharp eyed readings and illustrations from particular texts with a larger understanding of the comics as an art form this book discusses the development of specific genres such as autobiography and history Alternative Comics analyzes such seminal works as Spiegelman's Maus Gilbert Hernandez's Palomar The Heartbreak Soup Stories and Justin Green's Binky Brown Meets the Holy Virgin Mary Hatfield explores how issues outside of cartooning the marketplace production demands work schedules can affect the final work Using Hernandez's Palomar as an example he shows how serialization may determine the way a cartoonist structures a narrative In a close look at Maus Binky Brown and Harvey Pekar's American Splendor Hatfield teases out the complications of creating biography and autobiography in a substantially visual medium and shows how creators approach these issues in radically different ways

Comics of the Anthropocene José Alaniz, 2025-06-18 Since the first Earth Day in 1970 how have US comics artists depicted the human caused destruction of the natural world How do these representations manifest in different genres of comics like superheroes biography underground comix and journalism What resources unique to the comics medium do they bring to their tasks How do these works resonate with the ethical and environmental issues raised by global conversations about the anthropogenic sixth mass extinction and climate change How have comics mourned the loss of nature over the last five decades Are comics ecological objects in philosopher Timothy Morton's parlance Weaving together insights from comics studies environmental humanities critical animal studies and affect studies to answer these questions Comics of the Anthropocene Graphic Narrative at the End of Nature explores the representation of animals pollution mass extinctions and climate change in the Anthropocene Era our current geological age of human induced environmental transformation around the globe Artists and works examined in Comics of the Anthropocene include R Crumb Don McGregor et al's Black Panther Jack Kirby's Kamandi The Last Boy on Earth the comics of the Pacific Northwest and Stephen Murphy and Michael Zulli's landmark alternative series The Puma Blues This book breaks new ground in confronting our most daunting modern crisis through a discussion of how graphic narrative has uniquely addressed the ecology issue

Multicultural Comics Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-09-15 Multicultural Comics From Zap to Blue Beetle is the first comprehensive look at comic books by and about race and ethnicity The thirteen essays tease out for the general reader the nuances of how such multicultural comics skillfully combine visual and verbal elements to tell richly compelling stories that gravitate around issues of race ethnicity gender and sexuality within and outside the U S comic book industry Among the explorations of mainstream and independent comic books are discussions of the work of Adrian Tomine Grant Morrison and Jessica Abel as well as Marv Wolfman and Gene Colan's The Tomb of Dracula Native American Anishinaabe related comics mixed media forms such as Kerry James Marshall's comic book community performance DJ Spooky's visual remix of classic film the role of comics in India and race in the early Underground Comix movement The collection includes a one stop shop for multicultural comic book resources such as archives websites and scholarly books Each of the essays shows in a systematic clear and precise way how multicultural comic books work in and of themselves and also how they are interconnected with a worldwide tradition of comic book storytelling

The Story's Not Over Victoria Aarons, 2025-05-27

The diverse forms and structures of graphic narratives discussed in this volume by a range of international scholars demonstrate the ways in which Jewish women's graphic narratives reach into the past by way of stories and histories both individual and collective that provide a touchstone for the shape of identity
