New Confucianism: A Critical Examination J. Makeham, 2003-02-21 This collection of essays explores the development of the New Confucianism movement during the twentieth century and questions whether it is in fact a distinctly new intellectual movement or one that has been mostly retrospectively created The questions that contributors to this book seek to answer about this neo conservative philosophical movement include What has been the cross fertilization between Chinese scholars in China and overseas made possible by the shared discourse of Confucianism To what extent does this discourse transcend geographical political cultural and ideological divides Why do so many Chinese intellectuals equate Confucianism with Chinese cultural identity and Does the Confucian revival of the 1990s in China and Taiwan represent a genuine philosophical renaissance or a resurgence in interest based on political and cultural factors
