New Data For Lenins Imperialism:

Lenin, Trotsky and the Theory of the Permanent Revolution John Peter Roberts, 2014 Today yet again from Latin America to Nepal in India and the Middle East the question of which strategy the masses should adopt to take control of their own lives is being posed Without exception the leaders of the mass workers parties urge class collaboration as the way forward Actively supported by the national Communist Parties and even Maoist guerrilla groups a petty bourgeois amalgam proposes collaboration with the so called national bourgeoisie as the only path to national independence and democracy In the century since the Russian Revolution the first modern popular revolution to succeed in throwing out the imperialists much time and effort has been spent especially by the former Soviet bureaucracy in neutering Lenin praising him while tearing out the revolutionary heart of his theories This book demonstrates that the Russian Revolution a model for a victorious popular revolution in a semi colonial country in the era of imperialism required not a bourgeois democratic but a socialist revolution for the people to take power The old regime had to be destroyed and the state and governmental power seized by the working classes before it was possible to achieve national independence and carry through any meaningful agrarian reform for the benefit of the peasantry Lenin s close collaborator in October 1917 was Leon Trotsky and the success of that revolution was due to the combination of the discipline and organisation of Lenin s Bolshevik Party and Trotsky s political theory of the permanent revolution This book goes back to basics critically analysing and comparing Lenin s and Trotsky s own writings which are cited in their source and inspiration the Russian Revolution of 1905 It is shown that Lenin in October 1917 adopted the perspectives of Permanent Revolution that to finally rid Russia of autocracy and legitimise the peasants seizure of the land the Russian Revolution required the introduction of the dictatorship of the proletariat and the first steps towards the collectivisation of the means of production Those who attack the theory of Permanent Revolution never challenge the correctness of its basic concept that the international socialist revolution could begin in semi feudal Russia Instead in the guise of anti Trotskyism they deny the validity of Lenin s struggle for a socialist revolution in October 1917
