The New Diplomacy Abba Solomon Eban,1983

Global Television and the Shaping of World Politics Royce J.

Ammon,2001-08-31 In 1995 United Nations Secretary General Boutros Boutros Ghali said of the Cable News Network CNN is the sixteenth member of the 15 member United Nations Security Council Scholars as well as diplomats have recognized the existence of a link between communications and diplomacy but up until now the implications of this relationship have been left unexplored This work examines the historic interconnectedness between communications and diplomacy how communications have historically determined the practice of diplomacy and how global television in particular can determine diplomatic outcomes under certain conditions This work also examines the ways in which today s broadcasting will shape foreign policy processes in the future and the future impact of global television in world politics

The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch,Victor Kremenyuk,I William Zartman,2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter

Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch

Kremenyuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program

The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all posses If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor

Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950 s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of

International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremenyuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at IIASA I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University
