New Directions In Bible Study:

The Open Text Francis Watson,1993 The essays in this collection arose out of a conference held in 1992 While the contributions do not deny the need for historical criticism they believe it is no longer plausible to identify the results of such criticism with the full reality of the biblical texts Other approaches are equally legitimate and a new perspective must be pluralistic New Directions in Bible Study Thomas E. Gill,2005-08-01 Gill places three New Testament books in a more viable historical chronology drawing upon evidence long available to students of Bible study that theologians should consider
