New Geopolitics Of Eurasia And Turkey's Position:

The New Geopolitics of Eurasia and Turkey's Position Bulent Aras,2013-01-11 This work explores the geopolitical struggles that are currently underway in the newly independent states of the Caucasus region showing how many players in the region are coalescing into two opposing blocs The growing political military and economic ties amongst the countries of these two blocs stem from a number of developments in the region most notably the fall of the Soviet Union and consequently the end of the Cold War and its bi polar global alliance structure These blocs are competing for influence in the region and the rights to exploit and transport the rich energy resources that have been found in the Caspian Sea The text shows how many actors have been willing to co operate in other non energy related issues in the hope of receiving a financial reward when countries do decide on these matters

Turkey: Towards a Eurasian Shift? Valeria Talbot,2018-05-28 Over the last few years Turkey seems to have embraced the East again Ankara s closer relations with Eurasian countries go hand in hand with the global shift eastwards towards the ever growing and most dynamic region in the world It is therefore the result of an increasing differentiation of Turkey s foreign relations driven by strategic economic and energy interests Stronger ties with Eurasian countries i e Russia and China are also the litmus test for the ups and downs in relations with Washington and Brussels While Ankara still retains strong ties with the West it is laying the groundwork to further widen its interests to the East This report aims to analyse the multi faceted aspects of Ankara s Eurasian shift highlighting the domestic drivers of Turkey s Eurasianism the interests at stake the areas of cooperation and competition and last but not least the implications for the EU

Turkey's Entente with Israel and Azerbaijan Alexander Murinson,2009-12-04 With the end of the Cold War came a new political instability in Turkey and a shift in relations with the West leading the government to adopt new foreign policies and forge alliances with neighbouring states This book offers a detailed and comprehensive analysis of the evolution of the trilateral relationship between Turkey Israel and Azerbaijan Drawing both on first hand interviews and on research not previously available in the English language Alexander Murinson brings a new perspective to the study of the relationship between the three countries In particular he examines the commonalities of state identities that brought the countries together the role of state institutions the security dimension and the influence of globalization In a period of growing concerns about European energy security the book provides an extensive discussion of the activities carried out by various think tanks especially in Washington regarding the regional and domestic politics of the three countries An original contribution to study of regional processes in the expanded Middle East after the end of the Cold War this book is a welcome addition to the literature on the regional politics of the Middle East and the Caucasus As such it will be of great interest to anyone studying international relations security studies and Middle Eastern politics

Contemporary Russo-Turkish Relations Ali Askerov,2018-06-20 The Syrian Civil War started in March 2011 and still continues It causes death turmoil humanitarian crisis and mass migration in the region Numerous state and non state actors are involved in this multi sided armed conflict On 24 November 2015 Turkey shoots down a Russian fighter jet on its border and this event becomes the turning point in Russo Turkish relations An economic and psychological war starts between Moscow and Ankara which damages their good relations existed before the crisis Despite the crisis the sides to the conflict understand that they need each other for their own benefits and look for reconciliation Russia a supporter of the Assad government in Syria does not want to lose Turkey as a friend Turkey an energy partner of Russia needs Russia to balance the power relations in the region They are two neighboring countries with strong historical socio economic ties that need to be restored The reconciliation process is not easy and requires some third party role The PYD YPG centered US policy in Syria affects Turkey s strategies
