Constitutional Crises and Regionalism Vito Breda, 2023-08-14 This informative book analyses regional constitutional crises where a large portion of residents no longer believe that the rule of law as defined by central institutions governs them Laying out a framework for effective governance in divided societies Vito Breda argues that peace and collaboration are linked to managing shared beliefs through constitutional law Constitution Making during State Building Joanne Wallis, 2014-09-15 How can fragmented divided societies that are not immediately compatible with centralised statehood best adjust to state structures This book employs both comparative constitutional law and comparative politics as it proposes the idea of a constituent process whereby public participation in constitution making plays a positive role in state building This can help to foster a sense of political community and produce a constitution that enhances the legitimacy and effectiveness of state institutions because a liberal local hybrid can emerge to balance international liberal practices with local customary ones This book represents a sustained attempt to examine the role that public participation has played during state building and the consequences it has had for the performance of the state It is also the first attempt to conduct a detailed empirical study of the role played by the liberal local hybrid approach in state building Bougainville Douglas L.
