The New King Doreen Rappaport, 1995 When young Prince Rakoto is told of his father's death, he cannot accept it. The new king gives his first orders to his royal advisors: Bring my father back to life. Under Ranavalona's despotic rule, hundreds of thousands of her people, possibly one half of Madagascar's entire population, were murdered, starved or simply worked to death by her express command while she enjoyed an eccentric and debauched lifestyle. For these characteristics, European history has remembered her reign as
