Award Winning Social Media Literacy:

The Routledge Handbook of Media Education Futures Post-Pandemic Yonty Friesem, Usha Raman, Igor Kanižaj, Grace Y. Choi, 2022-09-13 This handbook showcases how educators and practitioners around the world adapted their routine media pedagogies to meet the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic which often led to significant social economic and cultural hardships Combining an innovative mix of traditional chapters autoethnography case studies and dialogue within an intercultural framework the handbook focuses on the future of media education and provides a deeper understanding of the challenges and affordances of media education as we move forward Topics range from fighting disinformation how vulnerable communities coped with disadvantages using media transforming educational TV or YouTube to reach larger audiences supporting students wellbeing through various online strategies examining early childhood parents and media mentoring using digital tools reflecting on educators intersectionality on video platforms youth produced media to fight injustice teaching remotely and providing low tech solutions to address the digital divide search for solutions collaboratively using social media and many more Offering a unique and broad multicultural perspective on how we can learn from the challenges of addressing varied pedagogical issues that have arisen in the context of the pandemic this handbook will allow researchers educators practitioners institution leaders and graduate students to explore how media education evolved during 2020 and 2021 and how these experiences can shape the future direction of media education

The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas

Children, Adolescents, and Media Dafna Lemish, Amy Jordan, Vicky Rideout, 2018-10-11 Bringing together the leading researchers on children adolescents and the media this books offers their cutting edge big picture ideas for the future of research and scholarship in the field Individual chapters focus on topics such as the role of big data in media research digital literacy parenting in the era of mobile media media diversity in the digital age the impact of media on child development children's digital rights the implications of intelligent characters and parasocial relationships and the effectiveness of transmedia for informal education Several chapters also explore the theoretical and methodological challenges facing children's media researchers Offering new directions for research the contributors consider the implications of the changing media landscape for parents educators advocates and producers Leading scholars from North America Europe and Asia grounded in different theoretical and methodological traditions join forces to discuss the impact of growing up in a media saturated world and to stimulate thinking about the field of children and media in unexpected ways This book was originally published as two special issues of the Journal of Children and Media

Digital Humanitarians Patrick Meier,2015-01-06 The overflow of information generated during disasters can be as paralyzing to humanitarian response as the lack of information This flash flood of information social media satellite imagery and more is often referred to as Big Data Making sense of this data deluge during disasters is proving an impossible challenge for traditional humanitarian

Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat,2018 Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges Publisher s description

Nursing Informatics Ursula H. Hübner,Gabriela Mustata Wilson,Toria Shaw Morawski,Marion J. Rethinking Media Education Anita Nowak,Sue Abel,Karen Ross,2007 This collection discusses and analyzes the efficacy of media education around the world paying particular attention to whether and how it improves the critical thinking skills of students Many books describe the importance of media education but few evaluate its effectiveness Implicit is a belief that without a thorough understanding of the extent to which media education achieves its aims or fails to do so its potential cannot be fulfilled

ISpy Mark Andrejevic,2007 A chilling account of the tradeoff we are willing to make between interactive media technologies and the power of others to watch over and control us This brave new world of electronic marketing and consumption actually lulls consumers into blissful ignorance of how that usage can be and is being monitored
