Language Learning Beyond the Classroom David Nunan,Jack C.

Richards,2015-01-30 This volume presents case studies of language learning beyond the classroom The studies draw on a wide range of contexts from North and South America to Europe and the Asia Pacific region Each provides principled links between theory research and practice While out of class learning will not replace the classroom ultimately all successful learners take control of their own learning This book shows how teachers can help learners bridge the gap between formal instruction and autonomous language learning Although English is the primary focus of most chapters there are studies on a range of other languages including Spanish and Japanese

Migration, Adult Language Learning and Multilingualism

Anna-Elisabeth Holm,2023-11-23 This book extends lines of inquiry at the nexus of migration adult language learning and multilingualism illuminating the lived experiences of migrants in the Faroe Islands and critical new insights into sociolinguistics from the periphery Building on recent epistemological shifts in research on minoritised languages this volume integrates threads from scholarship on migration studies new speakers and critical sociolinguistics in examining blue collar workplaces in the Faroe Islands In bringing greater attention to these contexts Holm showcases how these sites when analysed via an ethnographic lens reflect both the changing sociolinguistic landscape at the periphery in light of globalisation and adult language learners commitment to language learning as a form of personal and social investment In shedding light on the specific case of Faroese the volume critically reflects on the specific challenges involved in acquiring a small language in a bilingual context and on those impacting the sustainability of minoritised languages including the increasing use of English and the opportunities for stakeholders in language policy and planning to promote greater social inclusion for adult migrants This volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in critical sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology language education migration studies and applied linguistics

French Short Stories for Beginners Central Park Language Learning, 2020-10-26. Parlez vous français? You'll Answer Oui In No Time If You Use This Learning Technique. What's the best way to learn a foreign language? Most people would say that it's important to learn grammar and vocabulary. After all this is how languages have been taught in Europe for many centuries. However modern linguistics and cognitive science prove traditional methods wrong. The most important learning strategy according to great linguists such as Stephen Krashen is providing a lot of so called comprehensible input. This means reading and listening to a lot of texts that are challenging but still more or less understandable. When you get a lot of such input your mind figures out the grammar intuitively just like it figured out the grammar of your first language. This book offers a collection of seventeen short stories for beginners written in French. The stories range from really easy suitable for students who've just started learning French to somewhat more complex. There are three difficulty levels all in all. Read them when you've got some free time or listen to them in the car and very soon you'll notice that you speak French without thinking about all that grammar with the intuitive ease of a native speaker. Here's what you'll find: Seventeen short stories in French written in a beginner friendly language Two audio recordings of each story one extra slow so that you can understand every word and one at normal speed Three difficulty levels so that you can choose stories that are perfect for your unique learning process A variety of topics so that you won t get bored Vocabulary lists after every story to make sure that you ve understood every word How to Learn a Language Charles Duff,1947 Learning a New Language Claude C.
