Media Education for a Digital Generation Julie Frechette,Rob Williams,2015-10-14

Media education for digital citizenship is predicated upon the ability to access analyze evaluate and produce media content and communication in a variety of forms While many media literacy approaches overemphasize the end goal of accessing digital media content through the acquisition of various technology software apps and analytics this book argues that the goals for comprehensive and critical digital literacy require grasping the means through which communication is created deployed used and shared regardless of which tools or platforms are used for meaning making and social interaction Drawing upon the intersecting matrices of digital literacy and media literacy the volume provides a framework for developing critical digital literacies by exploring the necessary skills and competencies for engaging students as citizens of the digital world

Digital Literacy in the Classroom - Book 3 Neelam Parmar,2018 Book 3 for Year 3 Year 4 aims to develop digital literacy competencies in areas of computational thinking and programming communication and collaboration with creativity and the study of computer networks and productivity It supports teachers by providing step by step instructions and activity ideas based on whole class group paired and individual experiences It also encourages children to recognise the importance of staying safe online and creating a positive digital identity whilst using the internet Digital Literacy Paul

Gilster,1998-04-03 Readers leery of ramping onto the information highway and surfers suffering Internet overload will value the solid advice supplied by Gilster Booklist Paul Gilster s intelligent sobering look at the Internet is a breath of fresh air Amazon com This book sheds light on the skills that Web surfers need to separate the digital garbage from the golden nuggets of good data It s a good place to start for adult newcomers to the information highway Courant Now in paper Digital Literacy provides Internet novices with the basic thinking skills and core competencies they ll need to thrive in an interactive environment so fundamentally different from passive media PAUL GILSTER Raleigh North Carolina is the author of The Web Navigator and Finding It on the Internet which have sold over 200 000 copies The Ethics of Digital Literacy Kristen

Hawley Turner,2019-12-31 The digital era has brought many opportunities and many challenges to teachers and students at all levels Underlying questions about how technologies have changed the ways individuals read write and interact are questions about the ethics of participation in a digital world As users consume and create seemingly infinite content what are the moral guidelines that must be considered How do we teach students to be responsible ethical citizens in a digital world This book shares practices across levels from teaching elementary students to adults in an effort to explore these questions It is organized into five sections that address the following aspects of teaching ethics in a digital world ethical contexts ethical selves ethical communities ethical stances and ethical practices Digital Literacies for Learning Allan Martin,Dan

Madigan,2006 In the 21st century digital tools enable information to be generated faster and in greater profusion than ever before to the point where its extent and value are literally beyond imagining Such quantities can only be meaningfully addressed using more digital tools and thus our relationship to information is fundamentally changed This situation presents a particular challenge to processes of learning and teaching and demands a response from both information professionals and educators Enabling education in a digital environment means not only changing the form in which learning opportunities are offered but also enabling students to survive and prosper in digitally based learning environments This collection brings together a global community of educators educational researchers librarians and IT strategists to consider how learners need to be equipped in an educational environment that is increasingly suffused with digital technology Traditional notions of literacy need to be challenged and new literacies including information literacy and IT literacy need to be considered as foundation elements for digitally involved learners Leading international experts from the USA Canada Australia New Zealand South Africa Mexico and throughout Europe contribute to the debate and Hannelore Rader Librarian and Dean of the University Libraries University of Louisville Kentucky provides the foreword The book is in two parts In Part 1 Literacies in the Digital Age the contributors analyse how digital technologies have enabled transformative change in the ways in which learning can be constructed and discuss the nature of the new literacies that have emerged in this new virtual and e learning environment In Part 2 Enabling and Supporting Digital Literacies the contributors go on to consider the ways in which digital literacies can be made available to learners and how these literacies are being relocated in a more student centred environment within the broader perspective of learning Readership This book takes the issues raised in the successful Information and IT Literacy also co edited by Allan Martin into a broader context It is essential reading for all information professionals and educators involved in developing strategies and practices for learning in a digital age
