God's Other Book Mohammad Salama, 2024 In God's Other Book: The Qur'an between History and Ideology Mohammad Salama presents a powerful critique of the ways we study and analyze early Islam and its sacred text filling a glaring hole in our understanding of this formative environment Interrogating the ideological framework of late antiquity Salama exposes hidden assumptions that prevent scholars from truly placing Islam in its socio historical and cultural milieu He also offers an alternative theoretical and practical model focused on pre Islamic Arabic cultural production Foregrounding the indigenous Arab community of seventh century Hijaz Salama demonstrates how the Qur'an played an organic role in commenting on interacting with and taking sides concerning matters of ethnicity ethics dress codes and social habits While the study delves into the past it carries implications for the future only with renewed attention to the Qur'an itself in all of its splendor and intricacy can Western readers engage thoughtfully and ethically not only with Islamic studies but also with the cultures and traditions of those who live according to another book

The Foreign Encounter in Myth and Religion Kees Van Der Pijl, 2010-04-15 How do we think about international relations There is no question that society is based upon its cultural foundations yet this mode of understanding the world is seemingly absent from IR The second volume of Modes of Foreign Relations and Political Economy a three volume project changing the way we think about international relations traces the key characteristics of foreign encounters over time It shows that myth religion and ethical philosophies have always informed the way that societies have interacted with outsiders from tribal relations to the imperial frontiers Acceptance of this points us towards the future state of international relations A truly masterful work The Foreign Encounter in Myth and Religion is a must for upper undergraduates and academics at the cutting edge of international relations theory

The Sacred and Profane Fantastic Kevin Barrett, 1998

A Response to the Arabs Dionysius bar Šalībī (Bishop of Amida), 2005

The Unthought in Contemporary Islamic Thought Mohammed Arkoun, 2002 Mohammed Arkoun is one of the Muslim world's foremost thinkers His efforts to liberate Islamic history from dogmatic constructs have led him to a radical review of traditional history Drawing on a combination of pertinent disciplines history sociology psychology and anthropology his approach subjects every system of belief and non belief every tradition of exegesis theology and jurisprudence to a critique aimed at liberating reason from the grip of dogmatic postulates By treating Islam as a religion as well as a time honoured tradition of thought Arkoun s work aims at overcoming the limitations of descriptive narrative and chronological modes in history by recommending that the entire development of Islamic thought from Quranic to present day fundamentalist discourses be subjected to a critical analysis guided by these categories The expected outcome of such a strategy is an emancipated political reason working hand in hand with a truly creative imagination for a radical reconstruction of mind and society in the contemporary Muslim world The Arabian Nights Encyclopedia Ulrich Marzolph, Richard van Leeuwen, 2004 Masterpieces of Non-Western World Literature Thomas L. Cooksey, 2007-10-30 Contains ten interpretive essays that discuss classical works of non Western world literature including the poetry of Li Po the Epic of Gilgamesh and The Tale of Genji Dirāsāt Fī Tārīkh Wa-āthār Al-Urdun , 2008 Contains papers presented at the International Conferences on the History and Archaeology of Jordan Islam Mohammed Arkoun, 2006 The questioning of dogmatic constructs from within Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London University of London. School of Oriental and African Studies, 2005 Situating Islam Aaron W. Hughes, 2007 The formation of any scholarly discourse is contingent upon the creation of a vocabulary and a set of categories responsible for manufacturing the data that it deems significant or not The discovery of raw data the manufacture of theoretical or interpretive frameworks that make sense of such data and subsequent scholarly conventions responsible for its dissemination are always mediated by particular social ideological and political contexts This book documents these contexts in the creation of the discipline known as Islamic Studies and demonstrates how they have been instrumental in shaping how we think about Islam in both the academy and especially post 9 11 in the media This volume argues that knowledge of Islam has never been innocent or about the simple collection of facts but that the interpretive lenses used to study Islam have always been and continue to be caught up with larger forces e g the reform of Judaism Orientalism identity politics of the 1960s 9 11 the fight against terrorism the creation of a liberal Islam Whereas previous work is content to show the nefarious influence of Orientalism in the creation of Islamic data and the formation of an essentialized Islam Situating Islam argues that the opposite approach the construction of an authentic Islam that coincides effortlessly with Western values is equally problematic The work concludes by examining how Islamic data has the potential to help us better understand how we construct and contest religion
