Mulholland Drive:

Mulholland Drive Zina Giannopoulou, 2013-10-01 Beloved by film and art aficionados and fans of neo noir cinema Mulholland Drive is one of the most important and enigmatic films of recent years It occupies a central and controversial position in the work of its director David Lynch who won the best director award at the 2001 Cannes Film Festival for the movie Mulholland Drive in the Routledge Philosophers on Film series is the first full philosophical appraisal of Lynch's film Beginning with an introduction by the editor the volume explores the following topics the identity of the self and its persistence through time the central dual roles played by fantasy and reality throughout the film whether Mulholland Drive is best understood epistemologically via reason and language or whether as Lynch himself argues by one's inner feelings and emotions parallels between Mulholland Drive and Kafka's The Castle both of which pit their protagonists at the mercy of unseen forces Mulholland Drive and romanticism Additional key themes are also discussed such as the interpenetration of ethics classical tragedy and the contrasting philosophical arguments of Plato and Nietzsche on tragic drama These themes make Mulholland Drive essential and engaging reading for students of philosophy especially aesthetics and ethics as well as film studies

The Key to Mulholland Drive Christian Hardinghaus, 2018-07-25 David Lynch's cult movie Mulholland Drive offers us all sorts of riddles As a real classic of the Mindfuck genre the movie inflames passion even 17 years after its premiere The German specialist journalist and author Christian Hardinghaus tries to clarify the last questions in his interpretation what really happened on Mulholland Drive What can we learn from the key the blue box and the monster behind Winkie's What do the ten clues tell us which David Lynch gives the viewer Hardinghaus decrypts the plot of the movie step by step and in doing so he tells us the story of Camilla and Diane of Betty and Rita and the dream world Hollywood A book for all film enthusiasts who never got Mulholland Drive out of their heads For the very old and new lovers of the movie

Devious Dreams John Thorne, 2024-08-05 Puzzling and elusive David Lynch's Mulholland Drive 2001 refuses easy interpretation Critics have said the film is outside logical explanation that it lacks any semblance of rationality that people who try to work out what is really going on in it are wasting their time Given Mulholland Drive's unorthodox narrative Is the story a dream The visions of a dying mind A depiction of alternate realities it's no wonder audiences struggle to make sense of it In Devious Dreams Reimagining David Lynch's Mulholland Drive John Thorne argues that a simple story hides beneath the film's chaotic surface Through a study of Mulholland Drive's production documents shooting script and original configuration as a television pilot and through analysis of David Lynch's approach to editing sound design scene arrangement and camera movement Thorne offers compelling evidence that the first part of the film is an exaggerated reflection of the latter that a dream interpretation is the most coherent way to read Mulholland Drive Supplementing Thorne's analysis Devious Dreams features in depth interviews with Mulholland Drive's lead performers Naomi Watts Justin Theroux and Laura Elena Harring Each actor shares vivid memories of making Mulholland Drive both as television pilot and film and offers personal interpretations of the film Originally published in Wrapped In Plastic magazine in 2001 these interviews enhance our understanding of Mulholland Drive and provide a rare glimpse into its unusual creation Mulholland Drive is a film that warrants in depth interrogation Here in these pages it gets due consideration Cogently argued and meticulously researched Devious Dreams is an unprecedented look at this landmark film Mulholland Drive, 1999 Mulholland Drive Anthony Williams, 2020-04-22 A dark haired woman Laura Elena Harring is left amnesiac after a car crash She wanders the streets of Los Angeles in a daze before taking refuge in an apartment There she is discovered by Betty Naomi Watts a wholesome Midwestern blonde who has come to the City of Angels seeking fame as an actress Together the two attempt to solve the mystery of Rita's true identity The story is set in a dream like Los Angeles spoilt neither by traffic jams nor smog

Subjective Realist Cinema Matthew Campora, 2014-03-01 Subjective Realist Cinema looks at the fragmented narratives and multiple realities of a wide range of films that depict subjective experience and employ subjective realist narration including recent examples such as Mulholland Drive Memento and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The author proposes that an understanding of the narrative structures of these films particularly their use of mixed and multiple realities enhances viewers enjoyment and comprehension of such films and that such comprehension offers a key to understanding contemporary filmmaking Identity Construction in David Lynch's Blue Velvet and Mulholland Drive Ina

Brauckhoff, 2008-06 Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject Film Science grade 1 2 University of Modena e Reggio Emilia Universit degli studi di Modena e Reggio Emilia Facolt di Lettere e Filosofia course Border Crossings Constructing Personal and Social Identity in Film 13 entries in the bibliography language English abstract In the two selected David Lynch movies a shared motif becomes apparent the question of identity Therefore I define border crossing as the crossing of a psychological border within a person making possible to live out different part identities Jeffrey in Blue Velvet as well as Betty Diane in Mulholland Drive have two different identities i e they are presented to us in two different roles a psychological border crossing takes place In either case the concepts of identity and identity construction which were current at the date of the movies origin are represented Framing these concepts in relation to the time they were made it becomes clear that we are dealing with innovative groundbreaking ideas Thus I compare the films relating to how they express identity construction and the therewith combined border crossing Hereupon I will relate this analysis to the history of identity to make clear in which sense the dealing with the identity discourse is innovative in both of the films Finally I will discuss the question if the presented border crossings are still border crossings today or if they have already become habits To find an answer I will classify the movies within the film history and explain how the film socialization determines the spectators readings I suggest that both films despite all their differences actually tell the same story only that there are sixteen years of film history between them causing the different ways of narrating A second border crossing becomes apparent a border crossing between the two films Back to Mulholland Drive Nicolas Bourriaud, 2017 Back to Mulholland

Drive uses David Lynch's cult classic Mulholland Drive to explore an emerging trend of minimal fantasy in contemporary art surveying work where uncanny magical atmospheres are conjured through glassy minimal forms

The Rough Guide to Los Angeles Jeff Dickey, 2003 Fully updated this irreverent guide to the City of Angels focuses on both the major tourist destinations as well as lesser known gems and curiosities A colour photograph section brings the city's highlights to life from the Hollywood Hills to Santa Monica Boulevard Each chapter gives detailed coverage of each area's attractions from accommodation and restaurants to galleries shops sports activities and child oriented diversions There are also feature articles on such subjects as Hollywood LA on film architecture and LA people

The Solaris Effect Steven Dillon, 2010-01-01 What do contemporary American movies and directors have to say about the relationship between nature and art How do science fiction films like Steven Spielberg's A.I. and Darren Aronofsky's represent the apparent oppositions between nature and culture wild and tame Steven Dillon's intriguing new volume surveys American cinema from 1990 to 2002 with substantial descriptions of sixty films emphasizing small budget independent American film Directors studied include Steven Soderbergh Darren Aronofsky Todd Haynes Harmony Korine and Gus Van Sant as well as more canonical figures like Martin Scorsese Robert Altman David Lynch and Steven Spielberg The book takes its title and inspiration from Andrei Tarkovsky's 1972 film Solaris a science fiction ghost story that relentlessly explores the relationship between the powers of nature and art The author argues that American film has the best chance of aesthetic success when it acknowledges that a film is actually a film The best American movies tell an endless ghost story as they perform the agonizing nearness and distance of the cinematic image This groundbreaking commentary examines the rarely seen bridge between select American film directors and their typically more adventurous European counterparts Filmmakers such as Lynch and Soderbergh are cross cut together with Tarkovsky and the great French director Jean Luc Godard in order to test the limits and possibilities of American film Both enthusiastically cinephilic and fiercely critical this book puts a decade of U.S. film in its global place as part of an ongoing conversation on nature and art

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Nonlinear Narrative Films Wikipedia contributors, Los Angeles Noir Denise Hamilton, 2007 Los Angeles is the birthplace of noir Maybe it's the overwhelming shadow cast by Hollywood the blur of artifice and reality the possibility of shucking off the past like last year's dress and reinventing yourself beyond your wildest dreams Maybe it's the desperation that descends when the dream goes sour the duplicity behind the beauty the rot of jungle flowers Writers like James Cain and Raymond Chandler understood the hope and horror of the City of Angels and used it to masterful effect now their ethos is filtered through a 21st century multicultural lens

Karen Halverson: Mulholland, 2021-06-08 Photographer Karen Halverson first fell in love with Mulholland Drive after seeing David Hockney's twenty foot long painting Mulholland Drive The Road to the Studio at the Metropolitan Museum of Art A few years after that she moved to Los Angeles and encountered the real Mulholland Drive a road that twists and turns for fifty two miles along the crest of the Santa Monica Mountains from the Pacific Ocean to Hollywood She likens the drive which she has made hundreds of times to watching a movie full of jump cuts There you are maneuvering the curves of the road while spectacular images roll by left and right Mind the turns and the oncoming cars but catch the views as best you can native chaparral followed by swaths of hot pink groundcover arching succulents that look like saxophones sheared off hillsides limos cruising along movie sets and construction sites houses on stilts even houses perched on precipices finally the iconic Hollywood sign and everywhere the vast city below Her panoramic photographs of this legendary road named after William Mulholland the controversial water baron who was essential to Los Angeles s growth show the breathtaking natural landscape that is now inextricably entwined with the built environment Mulholland presents a unique portrait of this quintessential American city in a dramatic horizontal format that emphasizes the wild terrain that lies beneath the glamorous City of Angels

Killers on Mulholland Drive Ronald E. Bowers,2018-08-09 Often infamous criminal cases are linked together by where they occurred such as a certain area of the city or sometimes on the streets where they occurred This book investigates several cases which occurred along the renowned Mulholland Drive First we discuss the shooting death of Ennis Cosby which is an unfortunate case Ennis killer almost got away with murder which would have been a travesty of justice The prosecution s key witnesses were terrified of testifying against the killer since they thought they would be harmed by the killer s fellow gang members As we travel down Mulholland Drive also known as the Home of the Stars we stop to visit Marlon Brando s estate There we review the facts of the killing of the boyfriend of Marlon Brando s daughter by Marlon s son Christian Few people were ever privy to the reasons why Christian Brando plead guilty and ended up sentenced to six years in state prison Next door to Marlon s home is the bachelor pad of Jack Nicholson which played center stage to the longest fugitive case in LA s history Although this case wasn t a homicide it is the case one has to address when discussing
