Multicultural Assessment Principles Applications And Examples:

Multicultural Assessment Richard H. Dana, 2005-03-23 Psychologists throughout the world are being asked to assess an increasingly diverse clientele immigrants refugees second and third generations still influenced by different cultures and languages and indigenous peoples now moving towards the mainstream Most are ill equipped by training and experience to understand assess and subsequently treat such clients competently and ethically Virtually all agree on the need for culture sensitive assessment but it has proven difficult to provide adequate services despite good intentions and funding Too often clients who may have different worldview and health illness beliefs are marginalized For many reasons standard assessment instruments designed researched and normed on a few groups in the United States the MMPI 2 the Rorschach and the TAT are used as though they were universally applicable Most busy practitioners have little time to investigate alternatives developed for use with one new group or another focused on one issue or another generally in a research context In this book Richard Dana proposes a new model of multicultural assessment practice and points directions for future training and research He presents general culture specific and step by step instrument specific guidelines for the use of the standard armamentarium with different groups Throughout he highlights exciting new interpretive possibilities the traditional tests offer that should be regularly exploited but emphasizes the importance of recognizing psychometric limits Four extended examples of the use of one or several instruments with a specific group offer concrete illustrations of the model in action Multicultural Assessment Principles Applications and Examples constitutes an invaluable new resource for psychologists and for their students and trainees Multicultural Assessment Richard Henry Dana (Jr.), 2005 To Be One in Christ

Fernando A. Ortiz, Gerard J. McGlone, 2015-08-28 The priests and pastoral ministers of our day increasingly reflects the multicultural multi ethnic and multi lingual nature of the church in the United States For a variety of reasons they come from diverse ethnic backgrounds and countries of origin Seminaries and religious communities are welcoming international candidates with the vision that diversity strengthens the character and mission of the church Yet this ecclesial diversity also comes with unique challenges To Be One in Christ is a groundbreaking resource that delves into the questions raised by these complexities and provides an in depth analysis from theological sociological psychological cultural and Protestant perspectives Gerard McGlone and Fernando Ortiz are both nationally recognized experts on the integration of psychology and spirituality in priestly life The book they have edited investigates issues answer questions and provide insights on the increasingly multicultural settings and programs affecting seminary and religious formation The comprehensive resource will be welcome by vocation directors seminary formators clergy religious and seminarians Cultural Competence In Assessment And Intervention With Ethnic Minorities: Some Perspectives From Psychology, Social Work and Education Robert G.
