Multilingualism Second Language Learning And Gender:

Multilingualism, Second Language Learning, and Gender Aneta Pavlenko, 2001 Annotation The goal of this collection of essays is to transcend the Anglocentric monolingual bias which has characterized much of the field of language and gender studies by creating a new field combining multilingualism second language learning SLL and gender The focus of the new field is the relationship between gender ideology power and linguistic practices in bi and multilingual communities The 11 contributing authors include scholars from the fields of linguistics language teaching and acquisition teacher education communication and sociology and equity studies from the UK the U S Canada and Australia Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Multilingualism, Second Language Learning, and Gender Aneta Pavlenko, Adrian Blackledge, Ingrid Piller, Marya Teutsch-Dwyer, 2011-04-20 This volume presents a comprehensive introduction to the study of second language learning multilingualism and gender An impressive array of papers situated within a feminist poststructuralist framework demonstrates how this framework allows for a deeper understanding of second language learning a number of language contact phenomena intercultural communication and critical language pedagogy The volume has wide appeal to students and scholars in the fields of language and gender sociolinguistics SLA anthropology and language education

Language Learning, Gender and Desire Kimie Takahashi, 2013-01-22 For many Japanese women the English language has never been just another school subject For them English is the tool of identity transformation and the means of obtaining what they passionately desire mobility the West and its masculinity Language Learning Gender and Desire explores Japanese women's passion for learning English and how they negotiate identity and desire in the terrain of racial sexual and linguistic politics Drawing on ethnographic data and popular media texts the book offers new insights into the multidirectionality of desire and power in the context of second language learning

Gender Construction and Negotiation in the Chinese EFL Classroom Huajing Zhao, 2011-05-25 This book is developed from an ethnographic case study which investigated Chinese adolescents' construction of their gender identity and the way it is negotiated in the course of learning English as a foreign language EFL from a sociolinguistic sociocultural and sociopsychological point of view It documented the unseen connections between the micro level of the students' face to face verbal interactions and the macro level of the role of learning EFL that can play in students' construction and negotiation of their gender identity The book aims to help both teachers and students to develop a more comprehensive view of English learning as a means to social and educational development On the whole the study showed that second language learning pedagogy which integrates CLT can be used as an important tool to open up opportunities for the improvement of gender awareness in cultures where gender and sex are not linguistically differentiated It demonstrated that the EFL class can be used as a means of opening up a space where adolescents can become aware of gender and play around with this awareness It can be educationally valuable with regard to making students and teachers think about a number of social and intercultural issues alongside cross linguistic issues The fieldwork of the research showed that interventions directed at attracting students attention to gender roles and the way they behaved in interactions in English highlight an educational function of the place of EFL in the curriculum which is so far unrecognised in China Sociolinguistics: The sociolinguistics of multilingualism Nikolas Coupland,Adam Jaworski,2009 This title is a new collection in Routledge s Critical Concepts in Linguistics series In six volumes it provides a critical synthesis of the key ideas findings methods and approaches that make up the interdisciplinary field of sociolinguistics It includes both classic texts and contemporary state of the art research with a bias towards the latter The editors aver that the collection will stand as an articulation of the New Sociolinguistics as it is emerging through a sustained reflexive reassessment of the field which is now ongoing set against a core of classic texts
