Boys' Life ,1998-11 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Inventing 'Easter Island' Beverley Haun,2008-04-05 Easter Island or Rapa Nui as it is known to its inhabitants is located in the Pacific Ocean 3600 kilometres west of South America Annexed by Chile in 1888 the island has been a source of fascination for the world beyond the island since the first visit by Europeans in 1722 due to its intriguing statues and complex history Inventing Easter Island examines narrative strategies and visual conventions in the discursive construction of Easter Island as distinct from the native conception of Rapa Nui It looks at the geographic imaginary that pervaded the eighteenth century a period of overwhelming imperial expansion Beverley Haun begins with a discussion of forces that shaped the European version of island culture and goes on to consider the representation of that culture in the form of explorer texts and illustrations as well as more recent texts and images in comic books and kitsch from off the island Throughout Easter Island is used as a case study of the impact of imperialism on the view of a culture from outside The study hinges on three key points an inquiry into the formation of Easter Island as a subject an examination of how the constructed space and culture have been shaped reshaped and represented in discursive spaces and a discussion of cultural memory and how the constraints of foreign texts and images have shaped thought and action about Easter Island Richly illustrated and unique in its findings Inventing Easter Island will appeal to cultural theorists anthropologists educators and anyone interested in the history of the South Pacific

Pavlick,2010-12-22 A Gay Epiphany is basically my autobiography the autobiography of a man of no importance but it is really much more than that It covers a 55 year journey beginning with an innocent young child s search for God complicated by the conflicting dogmas and interpretations of institutional Christianity and coupled with growing up gay in the 1950 s and 60 s The book covers the struggles of a young man who wants only to serve God but who meets with nothing but religious hostility and condemnation from institutional Christianity due to his homosexuality It addresses many areas of study including comparative religion Eastern philosophy New Age The Christian Right politics The American Dream fundamentalism misinterpretation of religious texts authenticity of the Bible itself and many other related topics quoting from specialists in those fields of study It is an appeal to religious leaders parents educators and legislators to show more compassion towards gay men and women and grant them the full respect and equality to which they are entitled under a secular democracy It is my gift to my gay brothers and sisters who may still be struggling with how to integrate their sexual identity with their spirituality It is also intended as my gift to those in the heterosexual community who still may be struggling with which spiritual path out of the hundreds that exist would be most advantageous to their spiritual growth One can either choose a path which believes that the glass is half empty or a path
