Charles Patrick Ewing

Murder And Madness:

Of Murder and Madness Gerry Spence, 1995-10-15 This riveting blow by blow account of the trial of Joe Esquibel is told by his attorney Gerry Spence Joe Esquibel an unemployed Mexican American shot and killed his Anglo wife in the presence of eight witnesses including a deputy sheriff Spence developed the defense which successfully convinced the jury to find his client not guilty by reason of insanity Murder Madness Murray Leinster, 1949 Insanity Charles Patrick Ewing, 2008-04-07 The insanity defense is one of the oldest fixtures of the Anglo American legal tradition Though it is available to people charged with virtually any crime and is often employed without controversy homicide defendants who raise the insanity defense are often viewed by the public and even the legal system as trying to get away with murder Often it seems that legal result of an insanity defense is unpredictable and is determined not by the defendants mental state but by their lawyers and psychologists influence From the thousands of murder cases in which defendants have claimed insanity Doctor Ewing has chosen ten of the most influential and widely varied Some were successful in their insanity plea while others were rejected Some of the defendants remain household names years after the fact like Jack Ruby while others were never nationally publicized Regardless of the circumstances each case considered here was extremely controversial hotly contested and relied heavily on lengthy testimony by expert psychologists and psychiatrists Several of them played a major role in shaping the criminal justice system as we know it today In this book Ewing skillfully conveys the psychological and legal drama of each case while providing important and fresh professional insights For the legal or psychological professional as well as the interested reader Insanity will take you into the minds of some of the most incomprehensible murderers of our age Murder, Madness and Mayhem Mike Browne, 2021-11-02 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Mike Browne host of the popular Canadian podcast Dark Poutine chronicles some of his all time favourite stories of true crime and dark history from Canada and around the world Divided into four sections Murders with a Twist Perpetual Puzzles The Madness of Crowds and Notable Disasters all the stories in this collection except two are brand new and haven't been covered by the podcast In Murders with a Twist Browne recounts seven true crime stories with atypical elements including weird motives unusual perpetrators and bizarre murder weapons In one case we meet a man who is willing to kill to possess a human voice In another two women play a deadly game to prove their love to each other Perpetual Puzzles covers six stories that remain unresolved and will leave you with more questions than answers They include the archaeological find of the century which turns out to be something far more sinister as well as the discovery of a dead man on the beach with a mysterious clue in his pocket The Madness of Crowds reveals that murder and mayhem are sometimes a group effort We meet two young Canadians who leave home one summer to find work and instead end up on a murder spree and a bizarre California cult that asks its members to topple the Mormon church The book concludes with Notable Disasters which describes some of the most tragic and deadly events in history including the deadly tsunami in the Indian Ocean on December 26 2004 as well as the devastating Grenfell Tower fire in London in June 2017 The book includes a foreword by Alan R Warren bestselling true crime author and host of the House of Mystery Radio Show Murder, Madness & Love Yolanda Renee,2013 MURDER MADNESS (Unabridged) Murray Leinster,2018-11-02 This eBook has been formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices Seven secret service men have completely disappeared Another has been found a screaming homicidal maniac whose fingers writhed like snakes It is now up to Bell of the secret Trade who plunges into South America and goes after the Master the mighty unknown octopus of powers whose diabolical poison threatens the entire continent and push it into the chaos of madness Murder and Mayhem Michelle Ghaffari,1995 Murder Madness [Illustrated] Murray Leinster,2013-04-12 Seven United States Secret Service men have disappeared in South America Another is found a screaming homicidal maniac It is rumored that they are victims of a diabolical poison which produces murder madness Charley Bell of the Trade a secret service organization that does not officially exist discovers that a sinister system of slavery is flourishing in South America headed by a mysterious man known only as The Master This slavery is accomplished by means of a poison which causes its victims to experience a horrible writhing of the hands followed by a madness to do murder two weeks after the poison is taken Gruesome New York Nick Vulich,2019-12-23 Gruesome New York is a collection of true life stories most of them rescued from old newspaper accounts published over 100 years ago Only a few of the events in this book have ever made it into print except maybe in musky old county histories Even then they are lucky to rate a paragraph Read them now if you dare Included inside The murder of Helen Jewett in 1836 The killing of Carrie Brown better known as Old Shakespeare back in 1891 Lizzie Halliday who murdered five people including her husband in the early 1890s And don t forget Roxalana Druse She chopped up her husband and cooked him in the kitchen stove to eliminate the evidence Of course there s more but you get the idea Gruesome New York covers eighteen brutal New York killings that occurred between 1836 and 1920 Murder, Madness and Marriage Kate Kray,Ronald Kray,Mandy Bruce,1993 Diversity: Linguistic, Cultural, and Literary Perspectives Brähler, Susan,Münderlein, Kerstin-Anja, This essay collection emerges from a year long interdisciplinary exploration of cultural diversity within the framework of English and American Studies Informed by contemporary socio political challenges the volume positions academic discourse as a vital counterforce to reactionary narratives that stigmatise non normative identities by showing the omnipresence of diversity in literature and culture The eleven essays contributed by MA students alumni and faculty from across seven countries reflect the diverse perspectives and methodologies shaping the growing field of diversity studies Topics range from literary representations of queerness race gender and disability to narratological approaches to ageing and linguistic analyses of climate change discourse Together they demonstrate how literature film and media can serve as critical tools for examining power structures identity politics and social inclusion This collection contributes to the ongoing institutionalisation of diversity studies as a critical transdisciplinary field concerned not only with representation but with structural transformation in society and knowledge production alike Murder and Madness Patricia Lubeck, 2019-09-26 Murder is the willful killing of a human being with malice aforethought either expressed or implied Malice includes not only hatred and revenge but every terrible and unjustifiable motive committed by one person against another Malice indicates the state of mind of the person charged Insanity is a legal and not a medical concept and can be determined by applying certain legal tests A hundred years ago the wildest delusions were not always sufficient to get the prisoner off The insanity defense had to show previous notorious acts to demonstrate the irrational behavior of the defendant In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the most common weapons of death were the ax gun knife and poison Murder was never a bailable offense the defendant remained in jail until the trial and if convicted until his execution This book documents crimes personal hardships and other struggles which occurred in Renville County Minnesota from the late 1860s to early 1940s Find out what happened to Andrew Anderson who stabbed his wife with a knife Michael Dowling who almost froze to death in a blizzard Ole Rogn whose wife fell in a well Lincoln Parker who murdered his brother in law in cold blood Emanuel Otto a wealthy farmer who was poisoned and shot three men who robbed a bank in Danube Ed Corey who murdered the woman he loved Fred Zaske who attacked his wife with an ax Ed Butcher who shot his daughter while she wrote a letter Paul Schoepke who had a dispute with his brother about a gun Joe Williams who beat and robbed a hobo on the railroad tracks Odin Norby who embezzled money from his employer Otilie Lindeman who attacked her husband with an ax while he slept These are just a few of the many crimes that took place in Renville County After reading these stories you ll be left with more questions than answers Many of these cases remain unsolved to this day Gruesome Illinois Nick Vulich, 2019-10-18 When I came out of prison I wanted blood anybody s blood I wanted to kill people and see it run said Chicago serial killer Henry Spencer The penitentiary gave him ten dollars when they turned him loose He spent eight dollars on a pistol and started robbing people I have been killing people ever since I liked it in a way When I robbed anyone it was a sort of satisfaction to clean up the job by shutting the victim s mouth forever After my first stretch in the penitentiary I became cold blooded and for five cents would kill a man and drink his blood said Spencer The treatment I received down there was enough to drive a man crazy They would beat me and hang me up by the fingers for some slight infraction of the rules I ve always had a natural hatred for women I killed them as I would so many flies Whenever I felt like killing anyone I d hit them with a hammer or shoot them whichever happened to be handiest Henry Spencer murdered as many as 29 people between 1900 and 1912 and yet no one alive today knows who he is Henry Bastian killed nine people on his Milan Murder Farm in as many years but like Spencer he s fallen through the cracks and disappeared to history Gruesome Illinois is a collection of true life stories most of them rescued from old newspaper accounts published over 100 years ago Only a few of the events in this book such as the Monmouth Ax Murders and Chicago serial killer H H Holmes have ever made it into print Except maybe in musky old county histories Even then they are lucky to rate a paragraph Read them now if you dare 13 Bodies Thom Reese, 2011-01-15 Welcome to a world of murder and madness where psychiatric patient Ralph Shaw wonders if he's really just committed a heinous act or whether the mysterious others have manipulated his reality where Richard Renfro frets over a deadly plan to exterminate the woman who brought him into the world where Tony Russell gapes in horror at the unfolding tragedy of his revenge Stand behind Glenda Davis as she learns just what it takes to release the killer within Enter the domain of Liberty Marks as she aligns herself with a mysterious partner from beyond the grave Live these seven tales each unique to itself each exploring the human condition and our propensity toward destruction

Psychology of Fear, Crime and the Media Derek Chadee, 2015-12-07 The media continue to have a significant persuasive influence on the public perception of crime even when the information presented is not reflective of the crime rate or actual crime itself There have been numerous theoretical studies on fear of crime in the media but few have considered this from a social psychological perspective As new media outlets emerge and public dependence on them increases the need for such awareness has never been greater This volume lays the foundation for understanding fear of crime from a social psychological perspective in a way that has not yet been systematically presented to the academic world This volume brings together an international team of experts and scholars to assess the role of fear and the media in everyday life Chapters take a multidisciplinary approach to psychology sociology and criminology and explore such topics as dual process theory construal level theory public fascination with gangs and other contemporary issues

Final Vows Karen Kingsbury, 2017-03-07 A New York Times bestselling author and former Los Angeles Times reporter chronicles the marriage between a Christian woman and an ex con that ends in murder When Carol Montecalvo began writing to a man in prison through a program at her church she considered it her Christian duty But the letters soon became her lifeline something she actually looked forward to sending and receiving She fell in love with the man behind the letters and just before Dan was released they wed in the prison chapel Their marriage lasted nine years until the fateful night when Dan stoically called 911 to report his wife s murder With a half million dollar insurance policy riding on his wife s death and a string of adulterous affairs in his past Dan is the most obvious suspect But is this former felon really guilty Or could he actually be a grieving widower in the wrong place at the wrong time In this powerful true crime account of the gruesome murder and sensational trial that followed New York Times bestselling author Karen Kingsbury weaves an emotional story that leaves readers guessing until the final harrowing conclusion Motel Money Murder Madness Robert Mulloy,2013-11 A revolutionary highly charged look at the mind and life through the postmodern concepts of culture and voice A challenging but rewarding read and valuable experience for readers from all backgrounds This product is intended to be enjoyed
