Multicultural Encounters:

Multicultural Encounters Stephen Murphy-Shigematsu, 2002-09-19 Counsellors and other mental health professionals are increasingly encountering clients who differ from them in terms of race culture and ethnicity Unfortunately many have not been trained to understand how powerfully culture affects our view of the world The series on Multicultural Foundations of Counseling and Psychology is an invaluable new resource from Teachers College Press that focuses on multicultural issues in counseling and psychology The books in this series chart the development of this evolving new field and will help educators psychologists counselors social workers and other mental health professionals learn to balance culture universal and culture specific approaches to treat a diverse population This volume uses fascinating therapeutic encounters to help clinicians understand and respond to the needs of their increasingly diverse clientele Murphy Shigematsu urges clinicians to look beyond their assumptions and stereotypes to learn their clients cultures through eliciting key narratives Keeping the client and therapist center stage the author shows the complex ways in which their cultural self narratives interact

Multicultural Encounters S. Sharma, 2006-08-18 This book confronts the challenge of difference for rethinking everyday multiculturalism It proposes both a theory and practice of a critical pedagogy of popular culture through an analysis of contemporary media and film For students and scholars committed to a critical practice for transforming the politics of representation and otherness

Social Geographies The Newcastle Social Geographies Collective, 2020-10-19 Social geographies is a flourishing field that studies a diverse range of current social issues through a spatial lens Capturing a lively and dynamic area of scholarship this major textbook showcases the breadth of conceptual and empirical approaches that social geographers use to understand the world we live in It is collectively authored by one of the largest groups of social geographers in the world The book develops a vision of social geographies that is rooted in longstanding commitments to justice equality and social change while incorporating new approaches topics and concerns It offers the most contemporary and comprehensive round up of social geographies to date making sense of its rich and diverse interests Its 34 chapters contain lively and accessible summaries of current research on familiar topics such as space and time race class housing and health and recent developments including digital worlds performance sustainability and food Above all this collection makes clear the enormous relevance and contributions of social geographies not only to our understanding of a wide range of global and local issues but also to working for change for a better world alongside communities policy makers and social movements

Everyday Multiculturalism in/across Asia Jessica Walton, Anita Harris, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2021-05-13 What does it mean to bring Asia into conversation with current literature on everyday multiculturalism This book focuses on the empirical theoretical and methodological considerations of using an everyday multiculturalism approach to explore the ordinary ways people live together in difference in the Asian region while also drawing attention to increasing trans Asian mobilities The chapters in this collection encompass inter disciplinary research undertaken in Australia Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore and

South Korea that explores some core aspects of everyday multiculturalism as it plays out in and across Asia These include an increase in intraregional movements and especially labour mobility which demands regard for the experiences of migrants from Burma China Nepal The Philippines and India negotiations of cultural diversity in nations where a multi ethnic citizenry is formally recognised through predominantly pluralist models and or where national belonging is highly racialized and intercultural contestation against in some cases the backdrop of a newly emergent multicultural policy environment The book challenges and reinvigorates discussions around the relative transferability of an everyday multiculturalism framework to Asia including concepts such as super diversity conviviality and everyday racism and the importance of close attention to how people navigate differences and commonalities in local and trans local contexts This book will be of interest to academics and researchers studying migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies and to advanced students of Sociology Political Science and Public Policy It was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
