Multiethnic Education James A. Banks,1988      An Introduction to Multicultural Education James A. Banks,2008

This book gives teachers a strong background in the conceptual theoretical and philosophical issues in multicultural education Cultural Diversity and Education is designed to help pre service and in service educators clarify the philosophical and definitional issues related to pluralistic education derive a clarified philosophical position design and implement effective teaching strategies that reflect ethnic and cultural diversity and prepare sound guidelines for multicultural programs and practices This book describes actions that educators can take to institutionalize educational programs and practices related to ethnic and cultural diversity      Multicultural Education Prentice H. Baptiste,1979-09-14 A collection of original essays by scholars of multicultural and bilingual education which serves as an ideal introduction to both fields A review of selected multicultural publications and a descriptive analysis of teacher education models related to the process of multiculturalism provides the reader with a unique overview of this rapidly growing area      Multicultural Education James A. Banks,Cherry A. McGee Banks,2010 Multicultural Education is a reader which helps educators understand the concepts paradigms and explanations needed to become more effective practitioners in culturally racially and language diverse classrooms

Multicultural Education Patricia G. Ramsey,Edwina Battle Vold,Leslie R. Williams,1989 The second edition of this source book contains essays and annotations on a number of issues related to multicultural education The authors define multicultural education as a process oriented creation of learning experiences that foster an awareness of respect for and enjoyment of the diversity of our society and world Inherent in this definition of multicultural education is a commitment to create a more just and equitable society for all people This book then offers suggestions relevant to the teaching of all children all teaching and curricular decisions and every aspect of educational policy      Multicultural Education James Lynch,1986 First published in 1986 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Multicultural Education as Social Activism Christine E. Sleeter,1996-01-01 Connecting multicultural education with political issues of power and struggle this book explores what multicultural education means to white people given the unequal racial power relations in the U S and worldwide It examines connections between race gender and social class particularly as these connections play out for white women While taking a feminist perspective the author is also wary of the power white middle class women exercise in defining what counts as gender issues Throughout the book Sleeter argues that multicultural education was born in political struggle and can never meaningfully be disconnected from politics Ultimately the quest for schooling for social justice is a political quest rather than a technical issue      Multicultural Education of Children and Adolescents G. Understanding Human Differences Kent L. Koppelman,2013-02-13 This is the eBook of the printed book and may not include any media website access codes or print supplements that may come packaged with the bound book In Understanding Human Differences readers are introduced to sound research grounded in various behavioral and social sciences while featuring a stimulating inquiry approach to support reflection on issues of critical importance in multicultural education in today's diverse society. The conceptual framework of the book focuses on three areas: culture, the individual, and institutions. Readers are encouraged to examine individual concerns, understand the cultural/historical contexts, and explore such areas as racism, classism, sexism, heterosexism, and ableism. Included is a focus on changes already achieved or that need to be implemented in schools and other areas of society to create a more just society.

Deconstructing Race Jabari Mahiri, 2017-07-28 Mahiri argues that multicultural education needs to move beyond racial categories defined by the social, political, and economic forces of white supremacy. Exploring contemporary and historical scholarship on race, the emergence of multiculturalism, and the rise of the digital age, Deconstructing Race investigates micro-cultural practices and provides a framework for understanding the diversity of individuals and groups.

Multicultural Education in a Pluralistic Society Donna M. Gollnick, Philip C. Chinn, 2009 This respected text for courses in Multicultural or Multiethnic Education provides students the tools necessary to teach effectively in today's diverse classrooms. Pluralistic is defined as having multiple aspects or parts. The classroom of today has students from multiple backgrounds, cultures, and races. Within those differing groups, students have their own individual differences. Their home situations may be very different. They may be from a different social class. Each teacher also comes to the classroom with their own cultural background and past experiences that will effect how they will handle different situations. The goal of this book is to help students to apply what they have learned and in turn to prepare their students to live in our heterogeneous culture. Eight micro-cultures that teachers may encounter in the classroom are examined in detail. They are: Ethnicity and race, Class and socioeconomic status, Gender and sexual orientation, Exceptionality, Language, Religion, Geography, Age. Some of the features of the book are the ABC News Video Insights boxes that explore current issues in multicultural education today, Focus Your Cultural Lens Debates that ask the reader to take a position on controversial school issues with for and against statements to consider, and the Pause to Reflect feature which lists questions and activities to promote self-awareness and ownership of past experiences and how they may affect a teacher in the classroom. The Critical Incidents feature gives both real and hypothetical situations that occur in schools and encourage the reader to examine their feelings about them.
