Minority Languages and Multilingual Education Durk Gorter, Victoria Zenotz, Jasone Cenoz, 2013-11-04 This book presents research on the situation minority language schoolchildren face when they need to learn languages of international communication in particular English The book takes minority languages as a starting point and it bridges local and global perspectives in the analysis of multilingual education contexts It examines the interaction of minority languages and cultures majority languages and lingua franca s in a variety of settings across different regions and countries on all continents Even though all chapters in this book involve minority languages the issues discussed are relevant to any context in which more than language is used in education The book reveals challenges and opportunities of multilingual education by discussing issues such as Northern and Southern concepts language education policies language diversity interethnic understanding multimodal language practices power conflict identity and prestige among many others This is the volume that finally accounts for multilingual education from a truly multilingual perspective by involving proposals and research from a variety of multilingual speech communities in the world The linguistically rich Ethiopia and Mexico can teach the poor Europe and other Northern countries about multilingual education CLIL promoters may learn from Finnish Sami and Canadian Innu and Mi'gmaq indigenous communities as well as from Basque results Speakers and teachers of minority and international languages will certainly be glad to hear the news There is no need for a monolingual bias or tunnel vision in acquiring English in non English speaking communities This volume includes new challenging pedagogical perspectives while pointing to interesting conclusions for worldwide educational authorities Maria Pilar Safont Jord Universitat Jaume I Castell Spain

Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2005      Multilingual Europe Heather Merle Benbow, Jane Warren, 2009-05-27 As Europe continues to expand and integrate through the European Union it faces the challenge of ever increasing multilingual and multicultural contact within and across its borders This volume presents recent research on European language policy language contact and multiculturalism that explores how Europe is meeting this challenge Inspired by intersections and conflicts in language and cultural identity in Europe the volume transcends disciplinary boundaries by enhancing sociolinguistic research with chapters on cultural identity and language in contemporary European cinema The book considers the relationships between language and cultural identity in Europe at a time of increasing multicultural complexity with contributions on Belgium France Germany Italy the Netherlands Spain Sweden and Ukraine and the linguistic and imaginative spaces between and beyond The volume highlights the ongoing significance of language and identity for an expanding Europe and the ways in which situations of linguistic hybridity interlocution and language contact continue to define Europe and its others      Multilingual Talking Books in Ontario Public Libraries Françoise Hébert, 1988      Multilingual Facilitation Mika Hämäläinen, Niko Partanen, Khalid Alnajjar, 2021-03-23 This is a Festschrift for Dr Jack Rueter compiled on the occasion of his 60th birthday The book consists of peer reviewed scientific work by Dr

Rueter's colleagues. Its contents compiled by well established scholars and researchers in NLP, linguistics, philology and digital humanities pertain to latest advances in natural language processing to newly developed digital resources and to endangered languages. Contributions touch upon a wide array of languages such as historical English, Chukchi, Mansi, Erzya, Komi, Finnish, Apurin, Sign Languages, Sami languages and Japanese. Most papers present work on endangered languages or on domains with a limited number of resources available for NLP. This book is a tribute to Dr. Rueter's long career as a true pioneer in the field of digital documentation of endangered languages. His work has always been and remains to be characterized by altruistic thinking and dedication to a greater good in building free and open source tools and resources for languages which have previously not been afforded such much needed attention.

Rethinking the Education of Multilingual Learners Jim Cummins, 2021-09-06

Over the past 40 years Jim Cummins has proposed a number of highly influential theoretical concepts including the threshold and interdependence hypotheses and the distinction between conversational fluency and academic language proficiency. In this book he provides a personal account of how these ideas developed and he examines the credibility of critiques they have generated using the criteria of empirical adequacy, logical coherence and consequential validity. These criteria of theoretical legitimacy are also applied to the evaluation of two different versions of translanguaging theory: Unitary Translanguaging Theory and Crosslinguistic Translanguaging Theory in a way that significantly clarifies this controversial concept.

Handbook of Qualitative Research Methods for International Business Rebecca Marschan-Piekkari, Catherine Welch, 2004

They cover trends and prospects in international business research, case study research, interviewing in international business research, alternative methods and methodologies.

Words on Cassette, 2002 R. R. Bowker Publishing, 2002

Multilingual Europe Jane Warren, Heather Merle Benbow, 2008

As Europe continues to expand and integrate through the European Union, it faces the challenge of ever increasing multilingual and multicultural contact within and across its borders. This volume presents recent research on European language policy, language contact and multiculturalism that explores how Europe is meeting this challenge. Inspired by intersections and conflicts in language and cultural identity in Europe, the volume transcends disciplinary boundaries by enhancing sociolinguistic research with chapters on cultural identity and language in contemporary European cinema. The book considers the relationships between language and cultural identity in Europe at a time of increasing multicultural complexity, with contributions on Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Ukraine, and the linguistic and imaginative spaces between and beyond. The volume highlights the ongoing significance of language and identity for an expanding Europe and the ways in which situations of linguistic hybridity, interlocation and language contact continue to define Europe and its others.
