The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe,Faith Rogow,2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas Digital Humanitarians Patrick Meier,2015-01-06 The overflow of information generated during disasters can be as paralyzing to humanitarian response as the lack of information This flash flood of information social media satellite imagery and more is often referred to as Big Data Making sense of this data deluge during disasters is proving an impossible challenge for traditional humanitarian The Empathy Advantage Lynne Azarchi,2020-11-04 We live in a time when empathy is not only lacking but on the decline Kids are bullied because of the color of their skin religion culture a disability and more Bullying and cyberbullying are increasing especially for black and brown kids LGBT youth and Jewish and Muslim youth Fueled by decreases in respect kindness and compassion the house is on fire Empathy may be not be a cure all but just a little effort can transform a child into a more sensitive caring human being The good news is that empathy the ability to walk in someone else's shoes can be taught This book is all about teaching adults to teach empathy to kids The payoff will last a lifetime In this helpful guide parents caregivers and teachers are coached to help their children and students to develop social emotional skills that will equip them to better navigate the world with self compassion and empathetic concern The Empathy Advantage is for the busiest parents and educators It provides tips strategies online resources and activities that are fun and engaging and take just 10 to 20 minutes It emphasizes the importance of starting early being good role models spending quality face to face time together and more It will help readers understand the dynamics of bullying and teach children to stand up not only for themselves but others And it explores other topics including managing media in the home the value of pets in inculcating empathy active listening and self compassion i.e. being as forgiving and kind to yourself as you would to a friend Nursing Informatics Ursula H. Hübner, Gabriela Mustata Wilson, Toria Shaw Morawski, Marion J. Ball, 2022-07-25 This new edition of the classic textbook on health informatics provides readers in healthcare practice and educational settings with an unparalleled depth of information on using informatics methods and tools However this new text speaks to nurses and in a departure from earlier editions of this title to all health professionals in direct patient care regardless of their specialty extending its usefulness as a textbook This includes physicians therapists pharmacists dieticians and many others In recognition of the evolving digital environments in all healthcare settings and of interprofessional teams the book is designed for a wide spectrum of healthcare professions including quality officers health information managers administrators and executives as well as health information technology professionals such as engineers and computer scientists in health care The book is of special interest to those who bridge the technical and caring domain particularly nurse and medical informaticians and other informaticians working in the health sciences Nursing Informatics An Interprofessional and Global Perspective contains real life case studies and other didactic features to illustrate the theories and principles discussed making it an ideal resource for use within health and nursing informatics curricula at both undergraduate and graduate level as well as for workforce development It honors the format established by the previous editions by including a content array and questions to guide the reader Readers are invited to look out of the box through a dedicated global perspective covering health informatics applications in different regions countries and continents Democracy and Fake News Serena Giusti,Elisa

Piras,2020-12-30 This book explores the challenges that disinformation fake news and post truth politics pose to democracy from a multidisciplinary perspective The authors analyse and interpret how the use of technology and social media as well as the emergence of new political narratives has been progressively changing the information landscape undermining some of the pillars of democracy The volume sheds light on some topical questions connected to fake news thereby contributing to a fuller understanding of its impact on democracy In the Introduction the editors offer some orientating definitions of post truth politics building a theoretical framework where various different aspects of fake news can be understood The book is then divided into three parts Part I helps to contextualise the phenomena investigated offering definitions and discussing key concepts as well as aspects linked to the manipulation of information systems especially considering its reverberation on democracy Part II considers the phenomena of disinformation fake news and post truth politics in the context of Russia which emerges as a laboratory where the phases of creation and diffusion of fake news can be broken down and analysed consequently Part II also reflects on the ways to counteract disinformation and fake news Part III moves from case studies in Western and Central Europe to reflect on the methodological difficulty of investigating disinformation as well as tackling the very delicate question of detection combat and prevention of fake news This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of political science law political philosophy journalism media studies and computer science since it provides a multidisciplinary approach to the analysis of post truth politics Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat,2018

Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges Publisher s description The Bowker Annual Dave

Bogart,1997 Rethinking Media Education Anita Nowak,Sue Abel,Karen Ross,2007 This collection discusses and analyzes the efficacy of media education around the world paying particular attention to whether and how it improves the critical thinking skills of students Many books describe the importance of media education but few evaluate its effectiveness Implicit is a belief that without a thorough understanding of the extent to which media education achieves its aims or fails to do so its potential cannot be fulfilled The Bowker Annual Library and Book Trade Almanac 1998 Dave Bogart,1998 Everyday

Christian offers students an accessible informed and lively look at how they can consume and create media intentionally and critically. The straight talking textbook offers timely examples and relevant activities to equip students with the skills and knowledge they need to assess all media including news and information. Through discussion prompts, writing exercises, key terms, online links and even origami readers are provided with a framework from which to critically consume and create media in their everyday lives. Chapters examine news literacy, online activism, digital inequality, privacy, social media and identity, global media corporations and beyond, giving readers a nuanced understanding of the key concepts and concerns at the core of media literacy. Concise, creative and curated, this book highlights the cultural, political and economic dynamics of media in our contemporary society and how consumers can mindfully navigate their daily media use. Everyday Media Literacy is perfect for students and educators of media literacy, journalism education and media effects looking to build their understanding in an engaging way. Mind Over Media Renee Hobbs, 2020-10-20. Winner of the AAP 2021 PROSE Award for Excellence in Social Sciences. Propaganda is inescapable. It's everywhere. Students need to analyze, resist, critique and create. Media literacy educators have always insisted that we are both creators and receivers of media messages. The truth of this is even more apparent in today's digital environment, with children and adults alike participating in a ubiquitous, nonstop stream of social media. Clearly, students need the tools to interpret news and information critically, not just for school but for life in a post-truth world, where the lines blur between entertainment information and persuasion Renee Hobbs demonstrates how a global perspective on contemporary propaganda enables educators to stimulate both the intellectual curiosity and the cultural sensitivities of students Replete with classroom and online learning activities and samples of student work Mind Over Media provides a state of the art look at the theory and practice of propaganda in contemporary society and shows how to build learners critical thinking and communication skills on topics including computational propaganda content marketing fake news and disinformation The Bowker Annual Library and Book Trade Almanac Catherine Barr,1995 On Board,2006 *Statewide Audiovisual Service ...
