Mini Memories Joanne Wallace, 1995-01-01      Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09      Prophecy, Fate and Memory in the Early Medieval Celtic World Professor Jonathan Wooding, 2020-03-02

Prophecy Fate and Memory in the Early and Medieval Celtic World brings together a collection of studies that closely explore aspects of culture and history of Celtic speaking nations Non narrative sources and cross disciplinary approaches shed new light on traditional questions concerning commemoration sources of political authority and the nature of religious identity Leading scholars and early career researchers bring to bear hermeneutics from studies of religion and literary criticism alongside more traditional philological and historical methodologies All the studies in this book bring to their particular tasks an acknowledgement of the importance of religion in the worldview of antiquity and the Middle Ages Their approaches reflect a critical turn in Celtic studies that has proved immensely productive across the last two decades

Bigger Than Life Mary Ann Doane, 2021-10-18 In Bigger Than Life Mary Ann Doane examines how the scalar operations of cinema especially those of the close up disturb and reconfigure the spectator's sense of place space and orientation Doane traces the history of scalar transformations from early cinema to the contemporary use of digital technology In the early years of cinema audiences regarded the monumental close up particularly of the face as grotesque and often horrifying even as it sought to expose a character's interiority through its magnification of detail and expression Today large scale technologies such as IMAX and surround sound strive to dissolve the cinematic frame and invade the spectator's space immersing them in image and sound The notion of immersion Doane contends is symptomatic of a crisis of location in technologically mediated space and a reconceptualization of position scale and distance In this way cinematic scale and its modes of spatialization and despatialization have shaped the modern subject interpolating them into the incessant expansion of commodification

Staging Spectatorship in the Plays of Philip Massinger Professor Joanne Rochester, 2013-04-28 The playwrights composing for the London stage between 1580 and 1642 repeatedly staged plays within and other metatheatrical inserts Such works present fictionalized spectators as well as performers providing images of the audience stage interaction within the theatre They are as much enactments of the interpretive work of a spectator as of acting and as such they are a potential source of information about early modern conceptions of audiences spectatorship and perception This study examines on stage spectatorship in three plays by Philip Massinger head playwright for the King's Men from 1625 to 1640 Each play presents a different form of metatheatrical inset from the plays within of The Roman Actor 1626 to the masques within of The City Madam 1632 to the titular miniature portrait of The Picture 1629 moving thematically from spectator interpretations of dramatic performance the visual spectacle of the masque to staged readings of static visual art All three forms present a dramatization of the process of examination and allow an analysis of Massinger's assumptions about interpretation perception and spectator response
