Minotaur Poetry And The Nation State:

Minotaur Tom Paulin,1992 One of the most powerful poets of his generation consolidates his reputation as an exceptionally forthright and astringent critic in this book that analyzes the relationship between English language literature especially poetry and nineteenth and twentieth century politics Tom Paulin s criticism stays on track always responsive to a work s characteristic genius and sensitive to its social setting Each of these essays on poets ranging from Robert Southey and Christina Rossetti to Philip Larkin from John Clare to Elizabeth Bishop and Ted Hughes with a few excursions into the poetry of Eastern Europe for contrast is informed by a love for poetry and a lively attention to detail At every turn Paulin demonstrates the intricate connection between the private imagination and society at large simultaneously illuminating the kinship between the literature of the past and of the present He also relates the poetry to themes of nationhood and to ideas about orality speech rhythms and vernacular background Minotaur exemplifies the sort of general accessible criticism of the arts that will interest a wide range of readers    Minotaur Tom Paulin,1992-01 In this collection of essays Tom Paulin looks at the work of a selection of poets ranging from Robert Southey to Ted Hughes defining the originality of their subject matter He also relates the poets to themes of nationhood and to ideas about ways of speaking which run throughout the book

Official Voices: Poets and the Irish State Karl O'Hanlon,2025-03-21 Official Voices Poets and the Irish State examines the poet politicians and bureaucrats who shaped the twenty six county Irish state from its pre history in the revolutionary period through its foundation in 1922 and complicated modernisation in the 1960s to the outbreak of the Troubles Poet officials juggled writing the state and navigating the force field between poetry and politics with poetic form registering the aftershocks of this collusive antagonism Combining political history cultural history and literary criticism the book grapples with major issues in the state s history revolution state violence insurgency against the state patriarchy partition modernisation as well as socialist and feminist alternatives to conservative nationalism Poets examined in the book include W B Yeats Ezra Pound Desmond Fitzgerald Denis Devlin Joseph Campbell Valentin Iremonger Eithne Strong M ire Mhac an tSaoi and Thomas Kinsella It draws on new archival work in state archives and literary collections and situates the Irish state and Irish poetry within a transnational frame Taking up the relationship of poetry to politics and poet officials to state governance it tackles a perennial question what did poetry make happen and not happen in the twenty six counties This book is about acknowledged legislators poetry s formal vigilance and how poets apprehended consciously and unconsciously the recalcitrant workings of power    Minos and the Moderns Theodore Ziolkowski,2008-07-17 Minos and the Moderns considers three mythological complexes that enjoyed a unique surge of interest in early twentieth century European art and literature Europa and the bull the minotaur and the labyrinth and Daedalus and Icarus All three are situated on the island of Crete and are linked by the figure of King Minos Drawing examples from fiction poetry drama painting sculpture opera and ballet Minos and the Moderns is the first book of its kind to treat the role of the Cretan myths in the modern imagination

Beginning with the resurgence of Crete in the modern consciousness in 1900 following the excavations of Sir Arthur Evans Theodore Ziolkowski shows how the tale of Europa in poetry drama and art but also in cartoons advertising and currency was initially seized upon as a story of sexual awakening then as a vehicle for social and political satire and finally as a symbol of European unity In contrast the minotaur provided artists ranging from Picasso to D H Lawrence with an image of the artist's sense of alienation while the labyrinth suggested to many writers the threatening sociopolitical world of the twentieth century Ziolkowski also considers the roles of such modern figures as Marx Nietzsche and Freud of travelers to Greece and Crete from Isadora Duncan to Henry Miller and of the theorists and writers including T S Eliot and Thomas Mann who hailed the use of myth in modern literature Minos and the Moderns concludes with a summary of the manners in which the economic aesthetic psychological and anthropological revisions enabled precisely these myths to be taken up as a mirror of modern consciousness The book will appeal to all readers interested in the classical tradition and its continuing relevance and especially to scholars of Classics and modern literatures

Narrative and Voice in Postwar Poetry Neil Roberts, 2014-05-12 Poetry in English since the Second World War has produced a number of highly original narrative works as diverse as Derek Walcott's Omeros Ted Hughes' Gaudete and Anne Stevenson's Correspondences At the same time poetry in general has been permeated by narrative features particularly those linguistic characteristics that Mikhail Bakhtin considered peculiar to the novel and which he termed dialogic This book examines the narrative and dialogic elements in the work of a range of poets from Britain America Ireland Australia and the Caribbean including poetry from the immediate postwar years to the contemporary and novel like narratives to personal lyrics Its unifying theme is the way in which these poets with such contrasting styles and from such varied backgrounds respond to and creatively adapt the language worlds and hence the social worlds in which they live The volume includes a detailed bibliography to assist students in further study and will be a valuable resource to undergraduate and postgraduate students of contemporary poetry

Misreading England Raphaël Ingelbien, 2021-11-01 In Misreading England Poetry and Nationhood Since the Second World War Raphaël Ingelbien examines how issues of nationhood have affected the works and the reception of several English and Irish poets Philip Larkin Ted Hughes Geoffrey Hill and Seamus Heaney This study explores the interactions between post war English poets and the ways in which they transformed or misread earlier poetic visions of England Romantic Georgian Modernist It also traces often neglected but crucial links between their troubled poetics of Englishness and Seamus Heaney's poetry of Irish nationhood This radically intertextual approach takes issue with influential accounts of post war poetry that have drawn on postcolonialism Instead of being made to reflect contemporary agendas the poetics of nationhood are here considered in all their textual and ideological complexity and restored to the historical intellectual and literary contexts which postcolonial emphases on identity often play down or simplify Whereas critics in post devolution Britain increasingly use texts to debunk or promote specific versions of national identity this study interrogates the very terms in which the debate has been conducted Its metacritical analyses expose the contradictions of identity politics and its intertextual readings help re draw the map of post war poetry in Britain and Ireland Writers and Protestantism in the North of Ireland Barry Sloan,2000 Examining the relationship between literature and Protestantism in Northern Ireland the book begins by presenting the theological and historical contexts for the development of Protestantism in Ulster and considers its effect on the culture of the province Special attention is given to the influence of the Presbyterian Church and to the significance of its move away from radical dissent in the face of Home Rule politics The consequences of this move for 20th century Protestants is discussed with reference to literary political theological and critical sources Separate chapters discuss the poetry of Rodgers Hewitt MacNeice Mahon and Paulin Other chapters address representations of the Protestant experience in fiction and drama Sloan teaches English at the University of Southampton New College Distributed by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Poetry & Posterity Edna Longley,2000 Edna Longley s latest collection of critical essays marks a move back from Irish culture and politics to poetry itself as the critic s central concern She considers how poets are read and received at different times and in different contexts by academics as well as by a wider readership and from Irish English and American viewpoints But her interest in the reception of poetry is still very much influenced by debates about literature and politics in a Northern Ireland context and in the book s final essay she relates poetry to the peace process In two of these essays The Poetics of Celt and Saxon and Pastoral Theologies she has some fun with mutual stereotypes the Hughes or Heaney figure and with English misreadings of Irish poetry and its cultural and intellectual environment and Irish poets frequent complicity in this situation In other essays she discusses Edward Thomas and eco centrism the criticism of Louis MacNeice and Tom Paulin and the poetry of Larkin and Auden Poetry and Posterity follows Edna Longley s recently reissued Poetry in the Wars her classic work on Ireland poetry and war and her much celebrated book The Living Stream Literature Revisionism in Ireland Robert Frost and the Politics of Poetry Tyler Hoffman,2001 A powerful and persuasive new reading of Frost as a poet deeply engaged with both the literary and public politics of his day
