Fifty Years of 60 Minutes Jeff Fager, 2017-10-24 An illuminating TV show biography Kirkus Reviews the ultimate inside story of 60 Minutes the program that has tracked and shaped the biggest moments in post war American history From its almost accidental birth in 1968 60 Minutes has set the standard for broadcast journalism The show has profiled every major leader artist and movement of the past five decades perfecting the news making interview and inventing the groundbreaking TV expos From legendary sit downs with Richard Nixon in 1968 and Bill Clinton in 1992 to landmark investigations into the tobacco industry Lance Armstrong's doping and the torture of prisoners in Abu Ghraib the broadcast has not just reported on our world but changed it too Executive Producer Jeff Fager takes us into the editing room with the show's brilliant producers and beloved correspondents including hard charging Mike Wallace writer s writer Morley Safer soft but tough Ed Bradley relentless Lesley Stahl intrepid Scott Pelley and illuminating storyteller Steve Kroft He details the decades of human drama that have made the show s success possible the ferocious competition between correspondents the door slamming the risk taking and the pranks Above all Fager reveals the essential tenets that have never changed why founder Don Hewitt believed hearing a story is more important than seeing it why the small picture is the best way to illuminate a larger one and why the most memorable stories are almost always those with a human being at the center As traditional reporting is increasingly being challenged by high decibel opinion drenched media Fager highlights storytelling that conveys a deep understanding of issues and demonstrates the power of television to inform The Washington Post Fifty Years of 60 Minutes is at once a sweeping portrait of fifty years of American cultural history and an intimate look at how the news gets made Reader's Adviser and Bookman's Manual ,1935 Teacher's Guide for Music Education Geraldine Frances Fesenmyer,1947
