Miracles In Jewish Christian Antiquityimagining Truth:

The Cambridge Companion to Miracles Graham H. Twelftree, 2011-04-14 This book is a comparative study of miracles in the major world religions and explores the value of miracles in religious belief Saints and Role Models in Judaism and Christianity Marcel Poorthuis, Joshua J. Schwartz, 2004-01-01 This volume deals with the role of saints and exemplary individuals in Judaism and Christianity Although sharing the Hebrew Bible and recognizing the same Biblical figures there both religions have developed widely divergent perspectives upon the significance of these figures although there are occasional common motifs and themes Moreover even the contrasting themes betray an underlying interaction between both religions as is clear from the contributions on for example Melchizedek Elijah the Desert Fathers Rabbis on clothing the Apostle Peter in Jewish tradition the Maccabees in Christian tradition and the Biblical examples in Saint Antony the Hermit The book examines Jewish and Christian perspectives upon saints and role models from the Biblical period to the present time It will be of special importance to scholars and general readers interested in an interdisciplinary approach to theology rabbinics history art history and much more The Slow Fall of Babel Yuliya Minets, 2021-12-09 This is the story of the transformation of the ways in which the increasingly Christianized elites of the late antique Mediterranean experienced and conceptualized linguistic differences The metaphor of Babel stands for the magnificent edifice of classical culture that was about to reach the sky but remained self sufficient and self contained in its virtual monolingualism the paradigm within which even Latin was occasionally considered just a dialect of Greek The gradual erosion of this vision is the slow fall of Babel that took place in the hearts and minds of a good number of early Christian writers and intellectuals who represented various languages and literary traditions This step by step process included the discovery and internalization of the existence of multiple other languages in the world as well as subsequent attempts to incorporate their speakers meaningfully into the holistic and distinctly Christian picture of the universe Miracles in Jewish and Christian Antiquity John C. Cavadini, 1999 The essays collection in this book are the product of the annual year long seminar on Christianity and Judaism in Antiquity held in the Department of Theology at the Univ of Notre Dame Each is a study of some aspect of the miraculous relevant to the Bible and associated literature or to rabbinic or patristic literature which together range in focus from theoretical issues of the miraculous to single passages from the literature of the miraculous with consideration of everything in between Markan Typology Jonathan Rivett Robinson, 2022-11-17 Responding to the belief that typology was a later development of the early church and not applicable to the earliest canonical Gospel Jonathan Robinson stresses that typology has deep Jewish roots and that typological modes of thought were a significant part of the Gospel s historical and cultural background He brings this insight to bear on four of the most dramatic miracles in Mark s Gospel discovering a surprisingly consistent typological approach Essential to Robinson s argument is the discovery of distinctive words and phrases taken from the Septuagint that serve as unique indicators of Mark s intent to refer back to miracles from the Jewish scriptures pointing to influence from Jonah David Elisha and Moses These references in turn provide insight into Mark's Christology revealing that Mark presents Jesus as both the fulfilment of scriptural human types and as assuming the narrative form of Israel's God Robinson argues that rather than imposing categories extracted from earlier Jewish literature like divine identity and exalted human figures Mark should be allowed to speak on its own terms and with its own unique voice European Journal of Jewish Studies ,2008 Christians and Christianity in the Holy Land Ora Limor,Guy G. Stroumsa,2006 This volume fills a major desideratum in historical scholarship on the religious history of the Holy Land It presents a synthesis of our knowledge of the history of Christianity and the various churches that coexisted there from the beginnings of Christianity to the fall of the Crusader Kingdoms It also offers analytical studies of major topics and problems While the first part is organized chronologically the second follows a thematic plan dealing with the major themes pertaining to the topic from various points of view and covering several disciplinary fields History Theology Archaeology and Art History The volume represents the outcome of an international project initiated by Yad Izhak Ben Zvi of Jerusalem and the contributors are leading experts in their fields Elenchus of Biblica ,1999 The Monastic School of Gaza Bruria Bitton-Ashkelony,Arieh Kofsky,2006 The book deals with the history of the monastic community in the region of Gaza in Late antiquity It examines the monastic career and teachings of central figures such as Abba Isaiah Peter the Iberian Barsanuphius and John and Dorotheus The social religious and material aspects of this community are discussed in comparison with other contemporary monastic centers Heythrop Journal ,2001 A select book list appears quarterly Directory of Published Proceedings ,2002 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000 Book Review Digest ,2002 Choice ,1999

Marvellous to Behold Deirdre Jackson,2007 Beautifully illustrated with over 120 illuminations from manuscripts in the British Library this book examines medieval depictions of miracles It's structure is not chronological but thematic with different types of miracle treated together It is made all the more interesting by the inclusion of manuscripts from Judaism and Islam enabling comparison of episodes common to the three great monotheistic religions such as Abraham in the fire of the Chaldeans or Jonah and the whale The text looks at the social context of the illustrations and looks at parallels and differences in belief and spirituality across the centuries and religions Current Contents. Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information,2001 International Congress on Medieval Studies ,2001 A Feminist Companion to Matthew Marianne Blickenstaff,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Encyclopedia of Religion ,2005
