Doppelgangers, Alter Egos and Mirror Images in Western Art, 1840-2010 Mary D. Edwards, 2020-06-15 The notion of a person or even an object having a double has been explored in the visual arts for ages and in myriad ways portraying the body and its soul a woman gazing at her reflection in a pool or a man overwhelmed by his own shadow In this edited collection focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century western art scholars analyze doppelgangers alter egos mirror images double portraits and other pairings human and otherwise appearing in a large variety of artistic media Artists whose works are discussed at length include Richard Dadd Salvador Dali Egon Schiele Frida Kahlo the creators of Superman and Nicola Costantino among many others

Transforming Images Rebecca Coleman, 2015-01-28 Contemporary social and cultural life is increasingly organised around a logic of self transformation where changing the body is seen as key Transforming Images examines how the future functions within this transformative logic to indicate the potential of a materially better time The book explores the crucial role that images have in organising an imperative for transformation and in making possible or not the materialisation of a better future Coleman asks the questions which futures are appealing and to whom How do images tap into and reproduce wider social and cultural processes of inequality Drawing on the recent turns to affect and emotion and to understanding life in terms of vitality intensity and liveness in social and cultural theory the book develops a framework for understanding images as felt and lived out Analysing different screens across popular culture the screens of shopping makeover television programmes online dieting plans and government health campaigns it traces how images of self transformation bring the future into the present and affectively draw in some bodies more than others Transforming Images will be of interest to students and scholars working in sociology media studies cultural studies and gender studies

Mirrors and Mirroring from Antiquity to the Early Modern Period Maria Gerolemou, Lilia Diamantopoulou, 2020-01-09 This volume examines mirrors and mirroring through a series of multidisciplinary essays especially focusing on the intersection between technological and cultural dynamics of mirrors The international scholars brought together here explore critical questions around the mirror as artefact and the phenomenon of mirroring Beside the common visual registration of an action or inaction in a two dimensional and reversed form various types of mirrors often possess special abilities which can produce a distorted picture of reality serving in this way illusion and falsehood Part I looks at a selection of theory from ancient writers demonstrating the concern to explore these same questions in antiquity Part II considers the role reflections can play in forming ideas of gender and identity Beyond the everyday we see in Part III how oracular mirrors and magical mirrors reveal the invisible divine prosthetics that allow us to look where the eye cannot reach Finally Part IV considers mirrors roles in displaying the visible and invisible in antiquity and since
