Les Miserables Victor Hugo, 2017-05-30 Les Miserables is a French historical novel by Victor Hugo first published in 1862 that is considered one of the greatest novels of the 19th century In the English speaking world the novel is usually referred to by its original French title However several alternatives have been used including The Miserables The Wretched The Miserable Ones The Poor Ones The Wretched Poor The Victims and The Dispossessed Beginning in 1815 and culminating in the 1832 June Rebellion in Paris the novel follows the lives and interactions of several characters particularly the struggles of ex convict Jean Valjean and his experience of redemption Examining the nature of law and grace the novel elaborates upon the history of France the architecture and urban design of Paris politics moral philosophy antimonarchism justice religion and the types and nature of romantic and familial love Les Miserables has been popularized through numerous adaptations for the stage television and film including a musical and a film adaptation of that musical Upton Sinclair described the novel as one of the half dozen greatest novels of the world and remarked that Hugo set forth the purpose of Les Misérables in the Preface: So long as there shall exist by reason of law and custom a social condemnation which in the face of civilization artificially creates hells on earth and complicates a destiny that is divine with human fatality so long as the three problems of the age—the degradation of man by poverty, the ruin of women by starvation, and the dwarfing of childhood by physical and spiritual night—are not solved so long as in certain regions social asphyxia shall be possible in other words and from a yet more extended point of view so long as ignorance and misery remain on earth books like this cannot be useless. Towards the end of the novel Hugo explains the work's overarching structure: The book which the reader has before him at this moment is from one end to the other in its entirety and details a progress from evil to good from injustice to justice from falsehood to truth from night to day from appetite to conscience from corruption to life from bestiality to duty from hell to heaven from nothingness to God. The starting point, matter, destination, the soul, the hydra at the beginning, the angel at the end.
